Class Name:
CARIBOU MOUNT

Lesson:

- Today we are going to learn all about how the Lord gave Brother Branham a vision of EVERY detail of him shooting a 42" caribou and a silver tip grizzly on a hunting trip WAY up in British Columbia! (Point to the map)
- This story is taken from the tape, 'Spirit of Truth'.
- God manifested what He showed Brother Branham in the vision.
- Does anyone know what Manifest means? To make clear or to make come to pass.
- Now Brother Branham is going to read the Scripture for us today. So listen close, it is one of our Scriptures Of The Prophet... St. John 16:13.
- (Introduce that Brother Branham is going to have you turn to St. John 16:12)

Quote 1

- Now God cares about the big things AND the little things. This Scripture tells that He will show us things to come and manifests Himself to us...and especially to His prophet.
- Can anyone tell me some examples in the Message of some little things that God has done? God healed the mother opossum at Brother Branham's doorstep.
- Can anyone tell me of an animal that was brought back to life after Brother Branham prayed for it? That's right, a little fishy! Even Jesus used His power to curse a fig tree when there was hundreds of sick people in the land.
- He sees and cares about when you read your Bible, when you get up in the morning, when you pray before going to bed, and do your tape quizzes. He cares about ALL those things. He depends on us to walk with Him every day!
- Let's listen to how Brother Branham says how God is interested in all of these things!

Quote 2

- Did Brother Branham yield himself to God? Yes sir! That's what we want to do also!
- Now listen closely how the Lord showed him exactly how he would kill these mammoth animals.

Quote 3

- What did he see first in the vision he would shoot? Caribou
- How long were the antlers? 42 inches
- What was the 2nd animal he saw in the vision? A silver tip grizzly bear
- So Brother Branham said he would write it down and he told his congregation about it 3 months before it happened.
- Now, Around May 1961 Brother Branham took a hunting trip WAY up on the Alaskan Highway in British Columbia — (show map)

Quote 4

- Now don't we say that's the truth too? YES WE DO
- Did the silver tip grizzly live where they were hunting at? No! Bud was a guide there his entire life and he said it was sheep country where they were going. But can God's Word fail? No! God showed Brother Branham he would get those animals and it HAD to come to pass.
- How many loves nature? Brother Branham did too.
- Does anyone know what the Millennium is? It is when the Bride will live on the earth for a thousand years with Jesus on our honeymoon and this place that Brother Branham is about to describe is where he wants to live during that time.

Quote 5

Quote 6

- Wow! They were really far North getting away with God!

Quote 7

- Wow! They were up there praising the Lord for two hours!
- Then they had to have lunch...
- Has anyone ever had sardines? Ewww
- And waded up bread! It was all down in their pocket and sweaty.

Quote 8 (Show a can of sardines and waded up bread)

- Now Bud said, "you can shoot him from here" but Brother Branham said the vision said "he was right on him".
- Brother Branham had his caribou.
- They were about to head down the mountain, but what was he supposed to shoot next?
- That's right the silver tip grizzly. But did silver tip's live up there? No! BUT will God provide? Yes
- So down the mountain Bud and Brother Branham went taking turns carrying the heavy 42" horns.

Quote 9

- Now here the brothers are standing in front of the great mammoth grizzly bear!
- Bud was a little bit nervous about being so close and Brother Branham only having a .270 rifle.
- Wouldn't you be a little nervous too? But can Gods Word fail? No!

Quote 10

- Let's see what happens next:

Quote 11

- So they were back at camp and he shot the caribou and he shot the silver tip grizzly, now it was time to measure those antlers.

Quote 12

- So what did the antlers measure? 42 inches exactly!
- This is Brother Branham's den room in Tucson, AZ where his caribou and grizzly are now. Show picture of the den room.
- This is just another vindication or MANIFESTATION of when Brother Branham tells us things that they ARE going to happen. They can't fail and can God ever fail? No!
- Can those visions ever fail? No

Quote 13

- Jesus is truly the SAME; Hebrews 13:8 (recite as class)
- Now we are going to make our very own Caribou! Just like Brother Branham has in his den room, you can hang in your room as a memorial that God cares about the big things and the little things!

SCRIPTURE/QUOTE

"Let's find a place in Saint John, the 16th chapter of Saint John. And I got 16:12. I would like to read from—from that place in the Gospel of Saint John. I like to read the Word, because the Word is what makes us know that it's Truth. Beginning with the 12th verse, and listen close now, 'cause I want to give testimony. And then we'll try to get in just a little early. I been keeping you so late. And tomorrow night, why, we'll stay a half-hour extra. That'll make it about one o'clock, won't it? [Brother Branham and congregation laugh—Ed] So, so, this is beginning with the 12th verse. I have yet many things to say unto you, but you cannot bear them now.

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come. He shall now...glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you. All things...the Father has are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you."

Brother Branham
63-0118 - Spirit Of Truth

QUOTE 2:

"He's interested in you. He's interested in me. And He's interested to see His Word made manifest, and He's depending on us to do it, for we are His agents. Nothing in ourselves. It's Him; yielding ourselves and walking with Him."

Brother Branham
63-0118 - Spirit Of Truth

QUOTE 3:

"Saw a vision that morning. I seen a large animal laying on a side of the hill. Oh, it had a mammoth set of horns. I was on a hunting trip in this vision, along about ten or eleven o'clock in the day. And I slipped over and shot the animal. And then on the road back, a mammoth, big grizzly bear raised right up against me, and I shot him. And then I seen them take the horns, and a little hand reach and get the horn, put the tape on it. It measured forty-two inches, from the top of the beam to the top of the horn, forty-two-inches high. I never seen any animal like it, great big spikes on his horns. And, yet, it looked like a deer, but it's, oh, my, make two or three deer. I never seen anything like it. "Well," I said, "probably it'll come to pass someday. I'll just write it down."

QUOTE 4:

“So I said, “I have another vision,” and I told him of the vision. I said, “Now, there was some little fellows with me. We was on a hunting trip. They were small men. And one of them had a green, plaid shirt on.” And he said, “Well,” he said, “Brother Branham,” he said, “I don’t have a green, plaid shirt.” His boy, Blaine, eighteen, said he doesn’t have no green plaid shirt. Eddie Byskal, another little bitty fellow, weigh about a hundred and ten pounds, he said, “I don’t have one either, Brother Branham.” I said, “Well,” I said, “now, the animal...” He said, “What kind of a animal was it?” I said, “It looked like a deer.” He said, “There’s no deer up here. This too high.”

He said, “Maybe it was a caribou.” I said, “A caribou has a panel.” Said, “That’s right.” I said, “This had spikes.” He said, “Well, Brother Branham,” said, “we’re going to sheep country, not deer country or anything like that.” I said, “Well, it’s probably another trip. Brother Arganbright...It might have been Alaska somewhere,” I said, “ ’cause it was a mammoth, big grizzly.”

He said, “What kind of a grizzly was it?” I said, “Silver-tip.” That’s the most famous of all of them. He said, “I’m a guide. I been in these woods here all my life. I’ve never seen a silver-tip.” Said, “I’ve seen a regular old grizzly. But,” said, “I’ve never seen a silver-tip, never seen one in my life.” I said, “Well, there is some, one somewhere, and I’m going to get him.”

He said, “I’ll say that’s the truth.” He said, “I’ll say that.”

QUOTE 5:

“We took off, three days later. We made camp plumb, up above timberline. And God help me, if they stay that way till the Millennium, let me live there during the Millennium. I just love to bathe in that nature there. Oh! Anybody couldn’t see God there, is—is blind, deaf, and dumb. Just to see Him reflecting Himself in those great, mammoth mountains! Oh, my! The deep calls to the deep, then, and up there just having a glorious time. So we went up on one mountain. You just have to walk straight, like that, to get up it. Oh, no timber, just simply caribou moss is all you see. We seen about thirty or forty head of sheep. There wasn’t none big enough to take. It was just little half-rounds, and three-quarter rounds. I—I wanted one big enough to come out of there with, so I going that far back. So we...I went back down.

And the next day we started across, and Eddie fell in the water when he started to jump across, a big pair of shoes on. Going up the side of the mountain, Bud stopped and said, “Let me have your glasses, Billy.” I give him glasses. We’d walk a piece, and talk about the Lord, and shout, and run up-and-down the side of the hill, just have a glorious time. It’s good to go, hunting trip, if you go with brothers.”

QUOTE 6:

“And then, from then on, six hundred miles, the way the crow flies, there’s not even a path or a trail. And when you hit the West Coast, you go about eight hundred miles to Vancouver, there’s not even a speck of civilization. And the next civilizations, going this way, is Anchorage, about seven or eight hundred miles. Go back this way, you run into the little city, Yellow Knife, where you get a ship in there once a year for the Eskimos. And, next, you hit Russia. So, you’re really to yourself. That’s where God can take His rest, up there, from all of our troubles and trials that we put Him into. So I like to go up there and talk to Him when He’s resting, you see, so then when like it was last night on the—on the ship.”

Brother Branham
63-0118 - Spirit Of Truth

QUOTE 7:

“And we walked over here, and, oh, my, I just screamed out, “Glory to God!” I looked down there, and there was them big snow-peaked mountains; yellow caribou moss below the snow. And just below that come in the evergreen, which was the pygmy spruce. And got a little farther down, there was the buck brush, red. A little further that, was the quaking aspen, yellow. All reflecting in the lake down below it. Oh, my! Bud and I just put our arms around one another, and just danced a little jig around there, just screaming and shouting, and praising God. And we set down with our arms around one another, and just praised God. And had a wonderful time, I guess, about two hours.”

Brother Branham
63-0118 - Spirit Of Truth

QUOTE 8:

“So, we was standing there. We just eat a can of sardines, apiece, each one of us. And we buried under the moss, this sardines. And our bread, we had in our shirt, and sweated till it was all in one big lump. But it was good, when you’re hungry. And it’s all right. So, we stood there.

And I was just looking around. And I looked through the glasses. I said, “Bud, looky here. What is that over there?” About three mile away, there laid that caribou. And it was an odd one. Wasn’t panels; it was big spikes. I said, “You remember? Looky here. There is that panoramic, just exactly. And there lays that animal, just the way.” I said, “There’s only one thing that hinders the vision, somebody with a green, check shirt.” And there stood Eddie with a green, check shirt on. I said, “I thought you didn’t have one.” He said, “My wife must have put that in the pack. When I fell in the water, yesterday, had to change shirts.” He said, “I didn’t know she had it in there, Brother Branham. I’m sorry I told you something wrong.” I said, “You just had to do that, son.” Oh, Bud begin to shout. He said, “You can stand right here and shoot him, three miles away. Can’t you, Brother Branham?” I said, “According to the vision, I was right on him.” He said, “Brother Branham, I tell you, how you going to get over there?” I said, “I don’t know, but I’m going to get over there.” So he said, “How you going?” I said, “Going around this panoramic.” He said, “That’s shale.” And I...Said, “If you slide, you’ll have about thousand of tons of snow on you, in about a second.” I said, “The Lord will take care of that. That’s the way I went, in the vision, right on around.” He said, “Well, I’m going to follow you.” Here he come. And these boys said, “We’ll stay here now until we see you get the caribou,” and they said, “then we’ll—we’ll go on down, take the horses and go on in. We’ll meet you down at the end of the draw, about, oh, about four or five miles down.” He said, “All right.”

So we started around, Bud and I. In about a half-hour, we worked right around. And that caribou laying right there, looking right at us, and never seen us. He must have been asleep. And went up over a little cut, and come back, and come up within thirty yards of him. There he laid. This mammoth, big animal, rose up from there, and I got him. And while we was setting there, taking the cape, and so forth, from it, like that, Bud said, “Did you say these horns was forty-two inches?” I said, “That’s exactly right.” He said, “Brother Branham, they must be a hundred and forty-two,” great big head. I said, “No. It’s just exactly forty-two.” Said, “I got a tape measure down there.” I said, “Do you doubt it?” He said, “No, sir.” He said, “But, wait a minute, didn’t you tell me that you were going to get a big grizzly bear before you got back down? There’d be a silver-tip, before you got back where that boy was, the green shirt on?” I said, “That’s the truth.”

He looked back down the hill. Well, there isn’t a thing that high, nothing at all. Just moss, all you see, miles and miles, just rolling hills of moss. He said, “Where is he at, Brother Branham?” I said, “He can provide one. He said so.” I said, “Do you doubt that, Bud?” He said, “No, sir.”

QUOTE 9:

“Well, coming down the hill, we come like this. He would pack the rifle a while, and I’d pack the head, then vice versa. Just have to walk sideways, coming down, them big horns just raking into the moss. And we got within about a mile of it. We stopped and looked around. He said, “That old bear better be showing up, hadn’t he?”

I said, “What you—what you bothered about?”

Said, “Nothing.” We went on till we hit a little glacier coming across. We set down there and got cooled off a little. Said, “Brother Branham, just think of it,” said, “we haven’t got over about, oh, less than a half a mile till we hit them boys, and somewhere between here and there you’re going to kill a silver-tip.” I said, “That’s right. That’s right.” He said...I said, “You’re doubting that, Bud.” He raised up and took me by the hand. He said, “Brother Branham, my brother has never had a fit from that day to this.” He said, “The God that could tell you of my brother, wouldn’t lie to you.” I said, “Bud, he’ll be there.” He said, “Where will he come from?” I said, “I don’t know.” I said, “Bud, I’m fifty-two,” then. And I said, “I’ve saw visions, since a child. And when I saw this caribou here, killed, and you see if his horns isn’t forty-two inches. And then, the same vision, I on my road back down to where that company was, that I was with, I killed this silver-tip bear, grizzly.” He said, “Brother Branham, I can see for twenty miles.” He said, “God is going to have to pull him up out of the ground, or bring him down out of the skies, or something.” I said, “Don’t you worry. He’ll be there.” We went about another hundred yards. He was just about wore out too. This weigh about a hundred and fifty pound, this trophy. So, coming down the hill, and you set it down. He said, “Whew! I’m about give out.” I said, “Yep.” We come into a little pygmy, pygmy spruce then, about that high. There was a few grouse flying around, and there was ptarmigan hens, and so I threw some rocks at them like that. So he said, “Did you ever eat any of them ptarmigans?” I said, “No. I don’t believe so.” He said, “They’re fine. They’re as good as grouse.” He said, “Brother Branham?” Took off his big old black hat, fanned himself. Said, “About time for that old bear to show up, ain’t it, boy?” And I said—I said, “Bud, you’re doubting that.” He said, “No. I’m not. But, Brother Branham, I—I—I just can’t understand.” I said, “Neither can I. It’s not for me to understand. It’s for me to believe.” Amen. God in Heaven knows these things are true. Would I stand here and say this, it wasn’t true? Then I started to turn around, to give him the rifle, and me pick up the head. And as I turned, I said, “Bud, you got them glasses around your neck. What is that standing up there on the side of the hill?” And he threw the glasses up. He said, “Oh, help me,” said, “if it ain’t somebody’s milk cow!” There ain’t no such thing in the country. Said, “That’s the biggest grizzly I ever seen in my life. And so help me, look at that yellow sun shining on him. He’s a silver-tip.” Said, “How far you say he is?” I said, “He’s about two mile up there.” And we was about wore out. He said...I said, “What are we waiting on? Let’s go.”

And he said, “You sure of getting him?” I said, “Sure I’m going to get him.”

He said, “What’s that gun you’re using there?” And I said, “Now, never mind about that.” It was a little bitty gun some brother give me in a meeting one time, several years ago. I said, “A little, cheap .270.” And I said, “All right. I got...I...It’s going to be.” We kept going a little closer. And the closer we got, the bigger that bear looked himself. Oh, he looked like a mammoth haystack setting up there on that moss, you know. Stand, great, big, mammoth thing, head about that wide, you know, and jaws sticking out, great big paws. And he was poking up these little blueberry branches, like that, you know, eating them. And so set, great big fellow! We got about, oh, about eight hundred yards of him.

QUOTE 10:

“He said, “Hey, Brother Branham, did—did you ever shoot a grizzly before?” I said, “I’ve shot many bear, Bud, but I never did shoot a silver-tip grizzly before.” He said, “You know, the silver-tip is the biggest fighter of all of them.” I said, “Yeah, I understood that.” He said, “He don’t know how to die.” And I said, “Well?” He said, “Don’t...How—how—how far you have? How close you have to get to him with that?” Now, you just ask him. Write him a letter. I’ll give you the address. He said, “Let anybody write me about it, that wants to, on any of those things. Let me tell them.” And so... And I said, “Well?” I said... He said, “Now?” I said, “No, no. I was closer than this, Bud. I was right up, close to him.” He said, “We’re getting pretty close now. He can charge at any time.” I said, “I know it. But,” I said, “Bud,” I said, “it’ll be all right.”

Brother Branham

QUOTE 11:

“He said, “Now, when you shoot a bear,” said, “now, Brother Branham, you shoot him in the back. You have to break him down, ’cause he’ll keep on fighting, and can’t get up then.” I said, “No, according to the vision, I shot him in the heart.” He said, “I hope you didn’t make no mistake on that.” I said—I said, “I didn’t.” I said, “I remember that.” Cause, in a—in a vision, you’re in—you’re in one conscious, and both, as we explained it the other night. You’re in two. You can’t forget it. See? So there you are. So we got in again, about—about two hundred and fifty yards. That was just the last little coulee we went over. I said, “That’s just about it now. Look at him. Isn’t he a beauty?” He said, “Yeah, I guess he is.” I said, “All right, Bud. Now when I raise up from here, he’s coming.” I said, “You just watch.” And he said, “I’ll be watching.” So I put a shell up in the barrel of the gun, you know. And we was down under this little coulee. Just as I raised up, here he come. My, my! I stopped, shot, and it just sounded like a pea-shooter hitting him. Boy, it never a bit more checked him up, than nothing. And, my, before... You talk about speed! I never seen anything like that. He, they would outrun a horse, deer, or anything, you know, a bear can, like that. Him coming down that hill, right towards us, like that! And now, ’fore I could get another shell in the gun, he dropped dead, about, oh, about thirty, forty yards from me, just turned end over end; took heart, lungs, and all, from him. It was a Nosler bullet, you hand-loaders know. So it—it blowed him up, and he fell over. 215 Bud, standing there, looked over, was real white around the mouth. He said, “Brother Branham, I didn’t want him on my lap.” I said, “Neither did I.” He said, “Whew.” Said, “I want to tell you, after it’s over, boy. If that hadn’t have been one of them visions, and I’d seen happen before, I’d have never come up here, that close to that bear, with you.” And neither one of us could budge him. He weighed around a thousand pounds, I guess, so, mammoth, big fellow. We couldn’t clean him, we got...skin him. We started on down. And we said... “Brother Branham?” We picked up the horns. He said, “If them horns are exactly forty-two inches,” said, “I’m just going to have a running fit.” I said, “You better have it right now, then, ’cause that’s what it is.” He said, “I have never seen a—a—a...It seems to me like I’m dreaming this.”

QUOTE 12:

“And when we got down there, and I said to—to Eddie, I said, “Now you watch. Blaine will put his hands.” Now, you remember, there was a little hand around that horn. Remember, Brother Fred, how I told you it would be? And I said, “You watch it,” to Eddie. And so Bud said, “Wait.” He got his horse over there. And we had bear on us, you know, and those horses just tearing up everything. You know how they do when they smell a grizzly or any kind of a bear. So I—I went over there, held, trying to hold the horse, the saddle horse trying to get away. And he went over and got his tape measure, and come walking across there, looking at me, like that. Said, “Come here, Blaine.” I punched Eddie. Put it down on this. Amen. And so help me, forty-two inches, on the nose! Now, them horns shrink about two inches when they dry up. That grizzly bear is laying in my den room, and the horns are hanging on the wall. The taxidermist had fixed them, and fixed them up. There is a tape measure hanging on them, forty-two inches, exactly.”

QUOTE 13:

“And He, the Holy Ghost, when He is come, He will reveal these things to you that I have said, and will show you things to come.” Now, what is it? The hunting trip was only building me up, you see. One of the best trips I ever took, knowing that, this great shock. That was love. And, brother, sister, if all these other visions has been perfectly right, of what the Holy Spirit has showed, it’s got to be the Holy Spirit. The Bible said, that, “If it come to pass, then it was Him.” Then, what a hope we got! Someday we’re going to leave this place. We’re going back to a young man and woman, never to die no more. I’d rather know that than to know that I was going to be a president of the world and live for a million years. I’d rather know that I was in the hand of God. And I’m glad to know, tonight, that that same Jesus that made that statement, He is here, after two thousand years. See, it can’t perish. It’s Eternal. And He’s just same Jesus tonight that He was the day that He made this statement. And He will still confirm that Word, if we’ll believe it. Do you believe that? [Congregation says, “Amen.”—Ed.] “When He, the Holy Ghost, has come, He will not speak of Himself. But He will take the things, that of Mine,” that’s the Word, “and will show them to you. And then, also, He will show you things that is to come.”

- Stir stick
- Art paste
- Bowl
- Scissors
- Bucket
- Pencil
- Paper for stuffing
- Brown craft paper
- Cup
- Hot glue gun

STEPS:

(For ages 4-12 we did steps 1-4 before class.)

1. Start by tracing your paper templates onto cardboard. There are seven templates.
2. Once your pieces are cut out, assemble them together.
3. Crumple paper and fill in the frame while following the cardboard edges. Secure the paper with masking tape. Wrap around the frame with masking tape making sure the surface is smooth with no holes.
4. Cut a slit at the base of the right antlers pointing out above the right eye, the base of the caribou's shovel needs to fit snugly inside.
5. Make your paste according to the directions on the box.
6. Apply glue to craft paper and smooth over antlers and head. Make sure to secure antlers in the position you want them to dry.
7. Lightly coat the brown paper with glue and apply to the caribou; smooth out as many wrinkles as possible.
8. Glue quote at the bottom of the plaque leaving enough space to mount the caribou.
9. Mount the caribou above the quote.
