Mark 11:12-19

Monday:

Topic:

Jesus turned over the tables; Jesus curses the fig tree

Scriptures:

- Mark 11:12-19 (Brother Branham reads)

Quote:

“Mark 11:12. And on the morrow, when they...came from Bethany, he was hungry: And seeing a fig tree far off having leaves, he came, if happily he might find any thing thereon: and when he come to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee from henceforth for ever. And his disciples heard it. And they came to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves; And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple. And he taught, saying unto them, It is...written, My Father’s house shall be called the...of all nations the house of prayer? but you have made it a den of thieves. And the scribes and the chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they—for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine. And when evening was come, he went out of the city.”

“Besides that, He went into the temple one day. A Man went in there and found the house of God just about contaminated as it is today. They were buying, selling, changing money. And He turned over the money tables; took ropes and plaited them, and beat the moneychangers out of the temple. And looked upon them with anger, and said, “It’s written,” hallelujah, “My Father’s house is a house of prayer; and you’ve made it a den of thieves. And you, with your traditions, has made the commandments of God of none effect.”
