QUOTE 1:

“Now, myrrh, m-y-r-r-h, was “anointing of the death.” We find in Saint John, the 19th chapter, the 39th verse, that going to the—the funeral service of Jesus, when Mary and them went, they taken this myrrh to anoint Him with; because He must be the Servant of death for Jehovah. See? Somebody had to die. That was a service that had to be done for God, and nobody was worthy to do it but God Himself. So, bringing the myrrh—myrrh, showing that with the Deity, and with the service, that He also was anointed with myrrh; that this Deity had to be put to death in order to save the imperfect one. Oh, what a great thing!”

QUOTE 2:

“Now they gave Him myrrh, also. And anyone knows that myrrh is a very costly but bitter herb. Myrrh, what did myrrh represent? His great supreme sacrifice. His crushed out, young life, at Calvary, where the sins of the world ground Him into bits. Gold, because a King. Frankincense, of His sweet, loving life. And a myrrh, because of His sacrifice for sinners, that He died. “There He was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquity. The chastisement of our peace upon Him, and with His stripes we were healed.” That’s why they offered Him myrrh.”

QUOTE 3:

“He wasn’t idle when He was in the tomb. We think He was just laying there, dead. But He was down still conquering, He went down and took the keys away from Satan, He’s got the keys of both death and hell, tonight. He said, “Because I live, you can live, also.””
