JOHN<sup>THE</sup>
BAPTIST

In th

Welcome,

In his letter he wrote to the Colossians, Paul said "For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." What does it mean to be hid with Christ in God?

In this issue, we are going to tell you a few stories of those who were hidden with Christ. There is Rahab, the sinner woman who recognized that the Lord was with the Israelites. In order to save herself and her family, she needed to hide away with God.

Then there is John the Baptist. He was just a very young boy when his parents died, leaving him to learn the ways of God while surviving out in the wilderness. He was definitely hidden away from the world, in Christ.

God still wants us to be hidden in Him. The theme of this issue is Hidden In Christ. I hope you enjoy reading through it, and I pray it will help you get closer to our Lord!

adjective

kept out of sight; concealed

Do you know what it means to be hidden in Christ?

Do you know how to get hidden in Christ? The best place to find out these answers is in God's Word, so we went to the Bible to see what God's prophets say about being Hidden in Christ.

Instead of telling you what the Scriptures say, we're just going to give them to you to look up for yourselves.

We found a bunch of them in the Psalms;

Psalm 51:6 (the hidden part)

Psalm 83:3 (against thy hidden ones)

Psalm 17:8 (hide me)

Psalm 27:5 (hide me in his pavilion)

Psalm 143:9 (hide me)

Then we found some more really good ones:

Proverbs 2:1-9 (hide my commandments)

I Peter 3:4 (hidden man of the heart)

Revelation 2:17 (hidden manna)

There's another super good one that Brother Joseph read to the young people at the Still Waters camps:
Colossians 3:1-4 (hid with Christ)

Next, we went to the Message to see what Brother Branham, another one of God's prophets, said about getting alone and hidden in Christ. Below are a few of his quotes to read, but you should also listen to these messages so you can hear the WHOLE stories for yourself.

"But we must live with God in the Holiest of holies, a consecrated, hidden life, alone, quiet with God."

55-1110

"...but to be alone with God; right out among His nature, that's where I see Him."

53-0610

"Christianity is a sacrificed life, hidden life with God through Christ, sealed by the Holy Ghost. Amen."

56-0213

"And right on down the ages to the present time of the last day messenger the same life and the same light is manifested by a life that is hid with Christ in God."

Patmos Vision - Church Age Book Chapter 2.

"Oh, for those precious hours alone with God. And it's there that when the greatest revelation and inspiration comes, is when we're alone with God. We'd take more time on that,
I'm sure, that we would live a better life, more victorious life in Christ."

57-0301

"Yet men and women live a good life, and love God by a mental conception. But the real hiding place is in the heart: hid with Christ. And when Christ the Holy Spirit comes into your heart, He is in you with your temperament, and He's living
His Own Life to His own will through you. Hallelujah."

56-0101

We pray these Scriptures and quotes from Brother Branham will help you to get closer to God and more Hidden in Christ.

The Number 13

It's strange, America is number thirteen and a woman. And strange it appears even in the 13th chapter of Revelation. We started out with thirteen stripes in the flag, thirteen stars, every everything's thirteen, thirteen, thirteen, thirteen, thirteen all the way down; and everything's woman, woman, woman all the way down.

63-0319

There are thirteen stars at the top

There are thirteen leaves on the olive branch

"E pluribus unum" has thirteen letters

There are thirteen arrows in the eagle's talons

There are thirteen stripes on the eagle's shield

Standard paper cannot be folded in half more than 7 times.

The Yo-Yo originated as a weapon in the Philippine Islands during the sixteenth century.

Counting on Crickets

You can tell the temperature outside by listening to a cricket. Here's how:

For Fahrenheit (U.S.) - Count the number of chirps in fourteen seconds and add 37.

For Celsius - Count the number of chirps in 25 seconds and divide by 3, then add 4.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR OWN PERISCOPE

You'll need two milk cartons, two small square mirrors, scissors, tape, and a ruler.

Cut off the tops of two milk cartons.

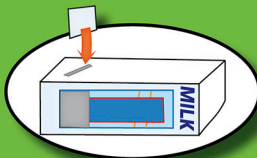

Cut a square opening near the bottom of the carton. These will be the openings you look into and see out of.

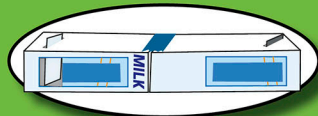

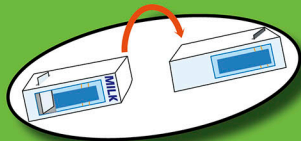

Place a carton on its side, with the opening facing right. Draw a diagonal from the bottom right corner of the carton to 2-1/2 inches up the left edge. Don't cut the entire length, just a small slot big enough for your mirror to fit into.

Slide your mirror into the slot you cut. When you look into the square, you should be able to see out the top of the box. Tape the mirror into place.

Make the second carton, following the same steps as the first. Then place the two cartons together, with one opening at the bottom facing you, and the other opening at the top, facing the other direction.

Check to see if the mirrors need adjusting, then firmly attach the two boxes together with tape. HAVE FUN!

YOUR HAIR, YOUR Glory

How To French Braid
learn how to french braid your hair by following the steps below

1

1. Start by taking a section of hair from the top of the head. Separate this section into 3 strands, crossing right over middle, and then left over middle, as if you were doing a basic braid.

2

2. Switch all of the strands over to your left hand and keep strands separated.

3

3. You can now gather a small, even section from the right side of the head with your right hand and add it to the right strand in your left hand.

4

4. Bring the strand you have just added to the middle, and switch it with the strand on the right.

5

5. Now switch hands, keeping all strands separate, so your left hand will be free.

6

6. Gather a section of hair from the left side of the head. Add this to the left strand.

7

7. You will now bring the left strand over to the middle and bring the middle section to the left. Then do the same thing for the right side. As you follow these steps, try to keep your hands close to the head so the braid will be tight.

8

8. Repeat steps 2 through 7 until there is no hair available to add. Finish style with a basic braid and fasten with an elastic.

"But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering."

Rahab

The Lord was blessing Israel with victories in battle, and their fame spread across the whole region. God had proved that He was with the great General Joshua, and had chosen him to be their leader.

One day, Joshua had a special assignment for two of his best spies. They were to go into the city of Jericho to secretly spy on them. The spies entered the city and went to the house of a woman named Rahab. She had heard the rumors of the Israelites, and how their God was great and powerful. She knew that the God of Israel was the one true God.

Maybe someone saw the spies go into Rahab's house, because the king of Jericho sent word for her to bring out the men who were in there. Rahab knew what would happen if the spies were caught, so she hid them from the king's soldiers. She told them the men had already left, but if they hurried, they could catch them! The Jericho soldiers left in a big hurry, not knowing that the men they were after, were right above their heads, hiding under stalks of flax on the rooftop.

After the soldiers left, Rahab had a request for the Israelite spies. She knew that Israel was coming to take Jericho, and she wanted herself and her family to be saved. The men agreed that as long as she didn't tell anyone what they were doing there, she and all those in her house would be safe from the Israelite army. They told her to hang a scarlet cloth in her window so the other Israelite soldiers would know who she was. The line was to be a token for her. As long as the token was easy to see, right there in her window, she would be spared from certain death. But if she got scared or embarrassed and took the token down, she would be killed with the rest of her city.

It wasn't long before General Joshua and his mighty army used the power of God to take the city of Jericho. As the battle raged inside the city, Rahab and her family were hidden safely inside her home. The Israelite army recognized the scarlet cloth as a token, and no harm came to Rahab's house. In fact, later on, Rahab married an Israelite soldier named Salmon, and their line of children led all the way to King David.

Did you know that the Holy Spirit is your Token like the scarlet thread that Rahab had? It can keep you safe, and keep the enemy away from your door. Just like Rahab, you must always have your Token visible for everyone to see. If our enemy, the Devil, looks at your life and sees that you have the Token of the Holy Spirit, he knows that he can't get to you. If God looks down and sees the Holy Spirit living in you, He knows that you are one of His, and He will protect you. The Token of the Holy Spirit is your Protector and Comforter, make sure to keep It on display for everyone to see!

You can read the story of Rahab in the book of Joshua, starting in chapter 2.

As the battle raged inside the city, Rahab and her family were hidden safely inside her home.

John the Baptist

The story of John the Baptist is a special one to us, because Brother John was a special man of God, and his life was similar to Brother Branham's.

At the very young age of nine years old, John was left all alone, with no father or mother to take care of him. Both of his parents had died, and now John had to make a decision of what to do. His father was a priest, so he could just go to the temple to be educated by men and follow the ways of a priest. But John couldn't accept that. God had a very important job for him, and John knew he would need a far greater Teacher than the high priest to prepare him. He was going to be the one to announce the first coming of the Messiah.

So John left everything he knew as a boy, and at nine years old, he was carried into the wilderness by the Spirit to get alone with God, to become hidden in Christ. God kept him away from the denominations and things of the world so that He could teach him the Word. God was preparing John for the great day of His coming.

John stayed hidden in the wilderness until he was 30 years old when he appeared before men as "The voice of one crying in the wilderness," crying out to the people, "Repent ye: for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." People went out from Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan, to hear this man clothed in camel's hair.

Many believed and were baptized by John in the Jordan, confessing their sins. The Lord said to John, "Upon whom thou shall see the Spirit descending and remaining, He's the One that will baptize with the Holy Ghost and Fire."

Then, the moment that God had prepared John for, finally came. Jesus came from Galilee to Jordan, and He stepped into the water to be baptized of John, to fulfill the Scriptures.

"And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a Voice from Heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Matthew 3:16-17

Just like God commissioned John in the wilderness to forerun the first coming of Christ, God commissioned Brother Branham on the Ohio River to forerun the second coming of Christ. God also kept Brother Branham hidden away from the denominations and things of the world so that He could teach him the Word, and prepare him to introduce Christ's return. We're so thankful that these two mighty men of God hid themselves in Christ to introduce Him to us!

You can read about John The Baptist in Saint John, Chapter 1.

THE ADVENTURE OF NUGGET THE CHICKEN

I am Jacques, one of your young members from Democratic Republic of Congo. I have a testimony to share with you. One day on the 2nd of February 2011, here in Kolwezi, two of my friends were playing with stones. One chicken passed by and was hit with a stone. After a while the chicken died. Being children, they were afraid because their mother was going to punish them for that. When they went to their mother, she told them to throw it away. They resisted, and they went to put it at the tabernacle (church) door. They are dwelling in the same fence the tabernacle is. Before the evening time came, they went, in fact, to see it. One of those children (8 year old Dan) told his older brother to pray, and they did together. After that they saw the chicken shaking itself once more, and it started to walk and went away. As it was their chicken, they did not want to let it die, so I know it was the faith of little children which did that, so this chicken should come to life again.

The greatest men to ever walk the earth were those who stood alone with God. Men who were hidden in Christ.

Jesus Christ, the greatest of all men, spent much of His time on earth alone and hidden with God. At the end of a day, instead of going over to talk to a group of people or going into the cities, He would get alone with God, away from the disciples and everything else. He was alone with the Father, the One He came to represent. Many prophets throughout Bible history: Noah, Abraham, Moses, Elijah, Jeremiah, Daniel, Isaiah, and John the Baptist, all stood alone with God. And Brother Branham stood alone with God. They were hidden in Christ.

So how did Brother Branham get away from the world to get hidden in Christ? Like John the Baptist, he was a lover of the wilderness and spent countless hours alone, seeking God. He loved the Lord Jesus so much, he separated himself from all denominations, and men, and everything of this world, so that He could hear from God. Brother Branham had to be so yielded and hidden in Christ, in order for God to use him for his great commission: "As John the Baptist was sent for a forerunner of the first coming of Jesus Christ, your Message will bring the second coming of Jesus Christ."

Because Brother Branham hid himself away with Christ, we have this perfect Message today. It's the same Word that was spoken all throughout the Bible, but God sent the Holy Spirit to reveal It to our hearts in this day.

God has a different purpose and calling for each of us, and He can use you too, like He did Brother John and Brother Branham, if you'll become Hidden in Christ.

RED thruRED

When you look at red through a red filter, it looks white. Imagine our sins being red, and the Blood of Jesus, which is also red, being above us. When God looks down at someone who has accepted Jesus, He looks through the red Blood first, and that makes our sins pure white. He doesn't even see all of our mistakes! Accepting Jesus into your life is very, very important, because if you don't, when God looks down at you, He will see the redness of your sins. But we want Him to see the pure whiteness of a forgiven believer!

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

ISAIAH 1:18

Take the color red. We take the first color, is red. What is red? Red is one sign of danger. Red is a sign of redemption. And you look at red through red, what color is it? White. That's correct. So when the red Blood was shed, to cover red sin, God, looking through red Blood, look at red sin, it becomes white. The believer can't sin. Certainly not. The Seed of God, the blessings of God, remains on him. God can't see nothing but the Blood of His Own Son.

PARTS OF HORSE

When you hear people talk about horses, you may hear some words you don't know. Read through these pages to get your horsey education. Read it too loud and you might get a little hoarse yourself.

A FULL GROWN

Many Colors

Horses come in many different colors. Here are just a few.

This horse looks like it's been painted! Horses with these painted colors are referred to as "pinto."

This spotted horse is called an "Appaloosa." This isn't just the color, it's a breed of horse.

"Buckskin" horses are a sandy yellow or light tan color. Their legs, muzzle, mane, tail, and the tips of their ears are black.

"Palomino" horses have a gold or off-white colored coat and a white or light cream colored mane and tail.

"Chestnut" horses are a reddish-brown color. They sometimes have white on them, but do not have any black.

"Bay" can be light reddish or dark mahogany color. Unlike the chestnut horses, the bays always have black markings.

Which is YOUR favorite?

GIVE 'EM A HAND

Horses are traditionally measured at the withers in 'hands.' This was originally the width of a man's hand, and has been set at 4 inches.

SO HOW BIG CAN THEY GET?

The tallest horse in the world stands over 20 hands high at his withers! His name is Radar, and he eats almost 60 pounds of food every day! Radar is pretty tall, but would've seemed like a pony next to Goliath!

THE JACK COY STORY

Jack Coy (also known as Tim) was an Indian guide out on the reservations in Arizona; kind of a missionary boy. He and his faithful horse, Bess, had been lost for days! It was hot, and they were dying of thirst.

Jack was leading the way, and Bess was staggering and breathing heavily. All the water was gone, and they were in the barren desert. Jack was a Christian man, but he knew it wouldn't be long until death would finally take them.

They were going along, then after a while they crossed a deer trail, where it looked like hundreds of deer had been running. With a burst of hope, Jack jumped on Bess and rode down the trail in search of water. He thought, "Well, that deer trail leads to water, so I'll find water."

After riding a while, they came to a place where the trail separated. One went this way and one went that way. Well, the one that went this way was small and had just a few tracks. But the one that went that way was big and well blazed. Now they had to decide which way to go.

Jack decided to continue down the big trail, but Bess wouldn't go.

Jack pulled and pulled and spurred old Bess, trying to get her to go, but she just nickered and pulled back. She wouldn't go! Finally Jack stopped. Bess was quivering and bleeding. He patted her and said, "Bess, I'm sorry that I did that." He said, "You have been faithful to carry me this far, and I'm willing to risk my life. I've heard that horses have instincts that they know where waters is."

Off they went down the small trail. All at once,

Bess started trotting until they plunged right in to a great big gusher of water. As the two jumped in they drank and they screamed out to the Lord. Jack thanked God, and he raised his hands and cried and shouted. He was just having a wonderful time!

If Jack and Bess would've went down the wrong path with no water, they would've died. But because Jack followed the God-given instinct of his horse, God's creation, they chose the right path. It led them to water, and life. We must always remember to follow God's path of life for us, and the Holy Spirit is the only Thing that can lead us down that path.

It won't be the big path that the world goes down, but it'll be the small path that will take us to Heaven.
