Welcome to another exciting issue of Cub Corner Magazine!

Hello my little ducklings, are you on the pond swarming around your leader?

It's almost time to take our flight to our Heavenly Home, so we've got to be sure we're hearing the right honk and following the right leader duck. That's the only way we'll make it Home.

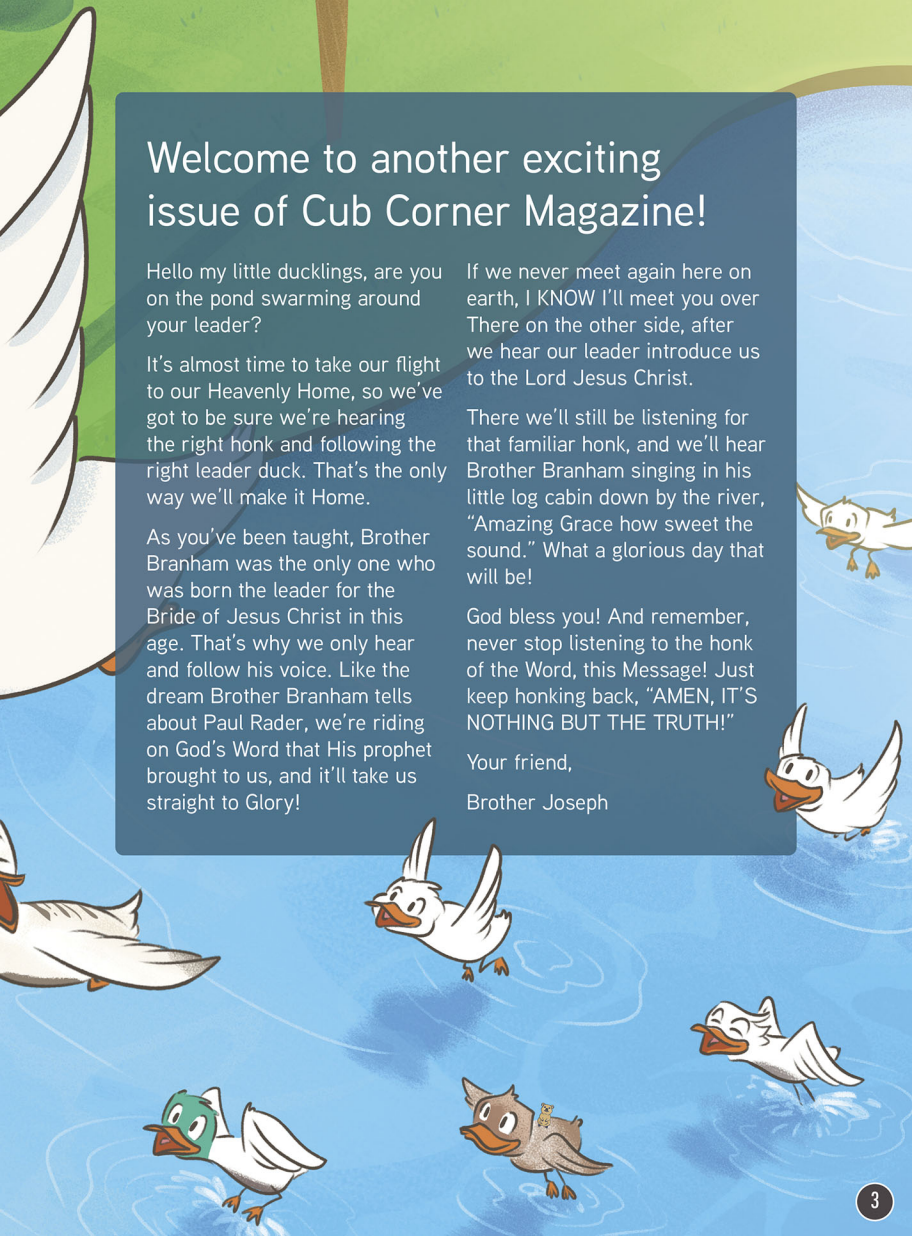

As you've been taught, Brother Branham was the only one who was born the leader for the Bride of Jesus Christ in this age. That's why we only hear and follow his voice. Like the dream Brother Branham tells about Paul Rader, we're riding on God's Word that His prophet brought to us, and it'll take us straight to Glory!

If we never meet again here on earth, I KNOW I'll meet you over There on the other side, after we hear our leader introduce us to the Lord Jesus Christ.

There we'll still be listening for that familiar honk, and we'll hear Brother Branham singing in his little log cabin down by the river, "Amazing Grace how sweet the sound." What a glorious day that will be!

God bless you! And remember, never stop listening to the honk of the Word, this Message! Just keep honking back, "AMEN, IT'S NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH!"

Your friend,
Brother Joseph

I'm Ridin'

- This is a story about a man named Paul Rader, and a very special dream that the Lord gave him.

For most of his life, Paul Rader was a missionary for the Lord Jesus Christ. On one of his trips in the deep jungles of South America, he got REAL sick with what they called "blackwater fever." He was dying, and there was no way for a doctor to come help him, because he and his wife were so far back in the jungle. But he believed in Divine healing, and he told his wife to stand by his side and keep praying. It kept getting darker and darker in the room, until everything went black. Then he started to dream a dream.

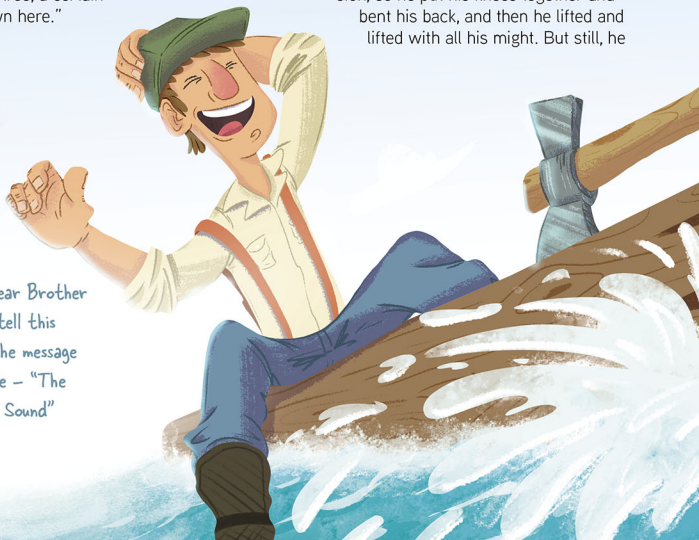

You see, Paul Rader used to be a big strong logger man in the state of Oregon, and in his dream he was back in Oregon in a lumber camp where he used to work. In the dream, the boss man told him, "Paul, go up on the hill and fell me a certain tree, a certain size, and bring it down here."

So he told the boss "All Right" and up the hill he went. He could smell the pine from the trees as he ran up the hill. Paul loved to breathe in that fresh smell of the woods!

He started to look around until he found just the right tree the boss man asked for. He took his sharp axe and cut the tree down, and trimmed it up. He stuck his axe in the soft wood, and then grabbed hold of the tree to get it down the hill. But you know what, he couldn't budge that tree! Normally he could lift a tree twice that size! He was determined to carry out his mission, so he put his knees together and bent his back, and then he lifted and lifted with all his might. But still, he

► For those who don't know, to "fell" a tree means to cut down a tree in logging terms.

- You can hear Brother Branham tell this story in the message 61-0429e - "The Uncertain Sound" ng on It!!!

couldn't move that tree! He wrestled with it, and wrestled with it, and wrestled with it, but it just wouldn't budge!

Finally, Paul got wore out. His strength was gone. He just sat down against the tree and leaned back, wondering what happened to his strength. But after a while, he heard a real sweet Voice, said, "Paul."

He wondered, "Is that my boss?" When he turned to look, it was his Boss all right. He never saw a sweeter face in all of his life. It was the Lord Jesus! He said to him,

"Paul, what are you wrestling with it for?" He said, "You see that stream of water there?"

Paul said, "Yes."

The Lord said, "That stream of water goes right down around the hill here and comes right out to the camp." Said, "Why don't you just throw it in the water, and get on it, and ride down?"

"Oh," he said, "I never thought of that!"

So Paul just rolled the tree in the water, started splashing around and riding down over the ripples, screaming to the top of his voice, "I'm riding on it. I'm riding on it." And about that time, he woke up from the dream and was standing out in the middle of the floor, screaming at the top of his voice, "I'm riding on it. I'm riding on it!"

It was the promise of God that Paul was riding on. And guess what, he was completely healed!!! God took that fever from him that very moment, and he was able to carry on the work of the Lord!

- Just like Paul Rader was riding on God's perfect Word, so are we! God promised us a Message and a Messenger in this last day, and It's here! We don't have to wrestle with It, or question It, or worry about anything, all we have to do is believe God's Word and ride on It. Just like that stream of water in Paul's dream, someday this Message will bring us straight to the camp of the Lord Jesus.

God's Creations

The Quokka

These cute little furballs are called quokkas. They are often referred to as the happiest animals in the world! It's easy to see why- they're always smiling for the camera.

Marsupials

Quokkas are a type of animal called a marsupial. This means they carry their babies, called "joeys," around in special pouches. That looks like a great place to play hide and seek!

big, long feet

Quokkas also have big, long feet and a long tail like a kangaroo.

Their little tiny arms are just perfect for holding the little, tiny leaves and berries they munch on.

Joey, where are you?

Howdy!

tiny arms

Meet a Quokka

If you want to see a wild quokka, you'll have to take a trip to Australia. The most popular place to see them is an island off the west coast of Australia called Rottnest Island. The quokkas are not afraid of humans at all, and they will hop right up for a visit! Some people actually visit the island specifically to meet a quokka!

Indian Ocean

Nap time!

When quokkas sleep, they curl into a ball and lay their heads on their tails. I guess that's easier than carrying a pillow around!

How Big Are They?

A quokka isn't very big. They are about the size of a small house cat. A full-grown male quokka weighs between 5 and 10 pounds. Female quokkas are a little smaller, between 3 and 8 pounds.

God Made them

The neatest thing about quokkas is that God made them! The same God that made YOU, made the fuzzy little quokka!

Brother Brigham Said:

"But, see, God, in the beginning, knew what a man would be like. And He created the earth, and brought up all kinds of animals, from the very lowest to the highest; and the highest animal come forth, was man."

FOLLOW GOD'S PROPHET!

If you were an Israelite in Moses' day you would want to be sure and stay right behind God's prophet, just like today. Find the right path through this maze so these two Israelites can be sure and follow Moses!

"And as a pastor here of the church, my absolute is the Word, and I want...I know you, our brothers, you kind of look to me to be your absolute to what...as long as I follow God, as Paul said in the Scripture, 'You follow me, as I follow Christ.'"

Church Ages

object hunt

We've all heard Brother Branham talk about the Church Ages, now you get to play a fun game about them! You are going to go on a hunt for objects around your house or yard that start with the letters that are highlighted below.

Messengers

Paul
Ireneus
Martin
Colomba
Luther
Wesley
Branham

Ages

Ephesus
Smyrna
Pergamos
Thyatira
Sardis
Philadelphia
Laodicea

Finished? Keep On Playing!

Here are a few other ideas for playing this game:

Instead of finding objects, get some paper and write down things you can think of that start with each letter.

To make it harder, you can use categories. For instance, name animals with each letter. Or only find or list things that are in the Bible or on Tape.

Play against a couple friends by writing down your answers in secret. Then compare your answers with each other and mark off any answers that are the same. See who has the most answers after all are compared and duplicates are removed.

ROAD TO EMMAS

! Cleopas and his friend were dragging their feet, weeping as they slowly walked towards the town of Emmaus. They weren't talking about how they must start their lives over, they were talking about Jesus. Their beloved Jesus was dead.

"I was so sure Jesus was the Messiah," Cleopas wept.

"It's over," his friend moaned. "How could we have been so wrong?! If only we could see Him once more!"

"Some of the sisters say they saw Him this morning," said Cleopas through his tears, "but there are so many rumors, who knows what to believe?"

"Fairy tales!" his friend choked, "maybe the whole thing was wrong."

"But what about the miracles we saw?" Cleopas cried.

"You're right," his friend admitted, "we were there when Lazarus was raised from the dead." His voice broke, "Oh, how we loved Him. How could a Man like that fail?"

Cleopas agreed. "I'm so disappointed. And now we stand in shame and disgrace, since we left our church and followed Jesus. I feel He let us down."

"Well, I still wouldn't go back to the synagogues!" Cleopas' friend said adamantly. "But... now we have no place to go."

As they plodded along, they noticed a Stranger Who had stepped out of the bushes.

"Good morning," the Stranger said, "may I join you?"

"Sure," they said glumly, "but I don't think we'll be good company."

"What's wrong with you two? Why are you so sad on this beautiful Sabbath morning?"

"What?!" Both men stopped and looked the Man straight in the face. "Are You a stranger to these parts?"

"What do you mean?" replied the Man.

"Haven't You heard what happened in Jerusalem last Friday?! Why, the whole country's tore up over it!"

"What happened?" the Man asked.

So the two men told the Stranger about Jesus, how He had raised the dead, healed the sick, and fed thousands.

"We believed Jesus was the Messiah. But then the priests and rulers ordered His crucifixion, and He didn't even defend Himself." Cleopas said.

"Several women went to Jesus' grave early this morning," Cleopas' friend added. "They said an Angel was there saying that Jesus is alive. But it was probably just a vision." He sighed. "We don't know what to believe."

As the two men talked, they didn't recognize they were talking to Jesus Himself! Finally, Jesus stopped and looked at them and said. "Oh fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. Don't you know the Scriptures?"

Astonished at the Stranger's rebuke, Cleopas stammered, "What... what do you mean?"

"Don't the Scriptures say that the Christ was to suffer these things, and raise on the third day to enter into His glory? My, how slothful you are!"

Though they'd been rebuked, this Stranger's sincerity made Cleopas and his friend ask for more.

So, beginning at Moses, the Man talked all day long of the prophetic Scriptures that referred to the Messiah. Prophecies of His death, burial and resurrection. "The Scripture says He would raise on the third day," He said.

You would have thought that after being with Jesus three and a half years, Cleopas and his friend would have recognized Him, and recognized His teaching, but they didn't. As the sun went down, the three men came to a little inn on the side of the road. "Let's stop for supper," Cleopas said.

But the Stranger hesitated, "No, I - I got to be going on."

"Oh, but you must come in with us," insisted Cleopas and his friend.

So the Stranger joined them as they were seated at a corner table. When the waitress brought them bread and olives, Jesus took the bread to bless it, and He broke it just like He had done so many times before. And that's when Cleopas' and his friend's eyes were opened! They said, "Why, that's exactly what Jesus used to do... Jesus?! Jesus, it's You!"

And instantly Jesus vanished before their eyes. The two men stared at each other, astonished and excited. "That was Jesus!" they both shouted. The two men jumped up, almost turning the table over, threw some coins on the table and ran out the door. Screaming and shouting, they raced back up the road to Jerusalem. "We gotta tell the others! We talked with Jesus all day long!"

Up the road Cleopas and his friend ran. Even though they'd taken all day to walk those seven miles, this time they covered it in just a few minutes! They were SO excited to tell the others how their hearts had burned within them all day as they'd walked with Jesus on the road to Emmaus.

A TRUMPET GIVES AN UNCERTAIN SOUND

There are uncertain sounds all around us, and the devil is constantly trying to get us to listen to these instead of God's certain sound. But we are trained soldiers with the revelation of the True Trumpet Sound, and our ears can hear nothing else! This Message is the ONLY trumpet sound we can hear, because It is the vindicated Word of the living God. "But to them trained soldiers, hallelujah, when they hear that trumpet sound, they know how to stand in order. Onward, Christian soldier! Glory! Oh, that's certain!"

READY TO FLY

It was a cool fall afternoon, and a bit chilly on the restless waters, but Samuel wasn't about to complain.

He was out on the family farm fishing with his dad, and there was no other place on earth he would rather be. The sun was shining, the ducks were swarming, and the fish were biting!

Samuel and his dad were enjoying their time together on the banks of the big, open lake, when all of a sudden Samuel's curiosity broke the silence.

"Dad?" said Samuel.

"Yeah son?"

"Where's all them ducks coming from?" Said Samuel. "They just keep coming, and coming and flying in from all different directions."

Samuel's dad replied, "Well, I reckon they come from a little bit of everywhere."

"Okay" said Samuel, "But what makes them all come together like this at the same place? And why are they so excited and making so much noise?"

Samuel's dad reeled in his fishing line and set his pole on the ground, next to the edge of the water.

"Well son, it's just like Brother Branham tells us on tape. They're having them a time of fellowship before they get ready to fly south for the winter. God gave them a special instinct that lets them know they need to get ready for their flight, to go where it's warm and where's there's plenty of food."

"Okay dad. I think all the ducks in Canada are on our pond right now!"

Samuel's dad chuckled and said, "I don't think our pond is quite big enough for that, but there sure is an awful lot of them!"

"Why are they all swarming around that one duck making all the noise out in the middle of the pond?" asked Samuel.

"Well, that's another thing Brother Branham taught us." Samuel's dad replied. "There's one duck, out of ALLLL those ducks, that was born a leader. And all the other ducks know just who that leader is when he sticks his little honker up in the air and honks. Here pretty soon, that leader will take off in the air and head south, and all those other ducks will follow him all the way down to Louisiana."

Samuel thought for a minute and then asked his dad another question, "Is that why we follow Brother Branham, dad, because he's going to lead us to Jesus in Heaven?"

"That's exactly right, Samuel. Brother Branham was the only one who was born the leader for the Bride of Jesus Christ in this age. That's why we only hear and follow his voice."

Samuel smiled and said, "I'm glad we know our leader, dad. You think we should go south to hear the Message for the winter?"

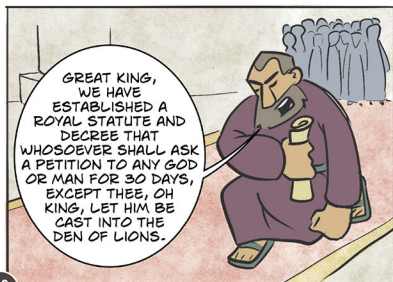

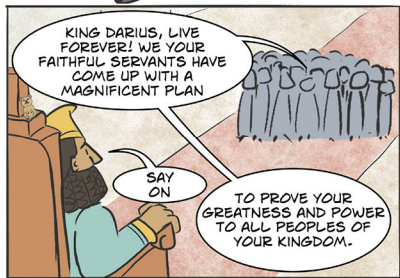

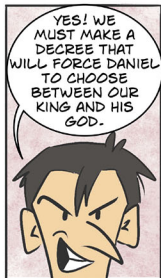

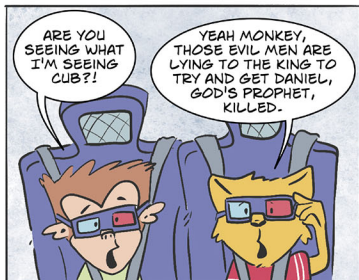

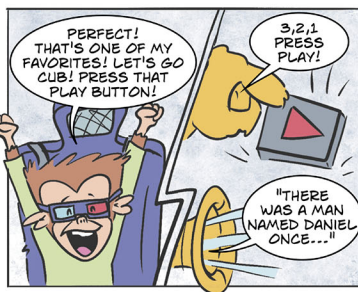

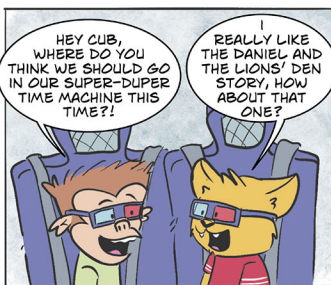

Samuel's dad chuckled and said "That's what's so wonderful about the Message, we can listen to it anywhere, at any time, and it's always fresh food for the Bride! But it is getting chilly out here, so how bout we go back to the house and get us some hot chocolate?"

Samuel laughed, "Okay dad, that sounds great!"

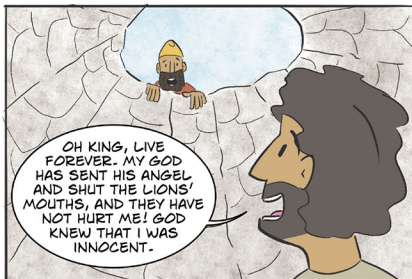

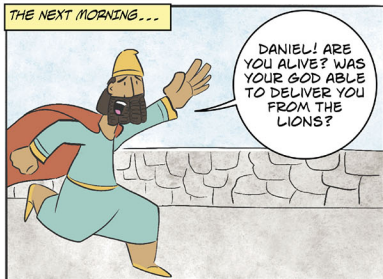

There's one duck, out of ALLLL those ducks, that was born a leader.

THE NEXT MORNING...

"AND DANIEL KNEW HE WAS A PROPHET, HE KNEW HE LOVED GOD. HE KNEW HE WAS HIS SERVANT, AND HE KNEW GOD WAS ABLE TO DELIVER HIM FROM THEM LIONS. BUT IF HE WAS IN TROUBLE, UNDER A THREAT, HE TURNED HIS FACE TOWARDS THE TEMPLE, AND PRAYED THREE TIMES A DAY, JUST EXACTLY. HE ACTED UPON THE WORD OF GOD, AND GOD FILLED HIM SO FULL OF THE HOLY GHOST TILL THE LIONS COULDN'T EAT HIM. THAT'S RIGHT. THAT'S RIGHT. HE ACTED FIRST UPON THE WORD OF GOD."

cub corner Interviews

In one of our CC magazines, we asked the kids to do some detective work for us and find testimonies from those who knew Brother Branham. Sister Autumn sent us this really neat interview she had with Brother Charlie Branham, Brother Branham's nephew.

Q: What is your name?

A: Charlie Branham

Q: What is your dad's name?

A: Doc Branham, he was Brother Branham's younger brother.

Q: So, Brother Branham is your uncle, that means Brother Billy Paul and Brother Joseph are your cousins?

A: Yes, Brother Billy Paul is 10 years older than me and Brother Joseph is 10 years younger than me.

Q: Do you go by any other name than Charlie?

A: Actually, Brother Joseph and Brother Billy Paul call me Chick. It is a nick name they gave me.

Q: What is your wife's name and how did you meet?

A: Sister Linda Branham - We met at Brother Branham's meetings.

Q: Do you have any neat testimonies or stories of your time with Brother Branham?

A: Yes, I have a TON! My wedding was the only wedding with TWO prophets in it. Brother Branham was the one that married us, and Brother Joseph was our ring bearer. Our wedding was also the only wedding that Brother Branham set the date and time for - February 20, 1965 at 2 PM.

Q: Can you share any neat stories with us?

A: I was able to help with the Branham Tabernacle's latest expansion. Also, I was at the Branham Tabernacle during the Seven Church Age series. On the last day I witnessed the Pillar of Fire come down and write the Seven Church Ages on the back wall.

Q: Did you get to experience anything else supernatural?

A: Yes, I was in the service when Brother Way was resurrected from the dead.

Sister Lois Branham's great-grandson was able to interview his grandma and ask her a few questions about her experiences with Brother Branham. There are some really neat stories in there that we had never heard before! Don't forget to send us your interview with someone who knew Brother Branham!

Q: What was it like to be around Brother Branham?

A: He was just so ordinary, it was very hard for me to recognize things at that particular time. I was young you know.

Q: Did he have a sense of humor?

A: Yes he did! He joked and we had a lot of fun together. Don't ask why, but he always called me granny!

Q: What was the first service you were in of Brother Branham's?

A: When Brother Billy and I were going together there was a service in Cadle Tabernacle in Indianapolis. He wanted to know if I wanted to go to the service. It was a one day thing. So mother said it was ok for me to go since we were coming back the same day. And that was the first service that I was ever in with Brother Branham.

Q: When traveling with Brother Branham what kinds of things did he talk about?

A: Well I would sit in the backseat of course! And he and Brother Billy would talk about various things, like hunting and fishing. He sort of liked to be down to earth when he was traveling. I never heard him talk a lot about the services and meetings. He could have, but I just don't remember. Most of the talk was just between him and Brother Billy, I just sat in the backseat and listened! Everything he said was very interesting!

Q: What was it like being his daughter-in-law?

A: Just normal I suppose. He acted just like an ordinary person until the Lord started working with him with visions or services, whatever it was. But even with that, he was an ordinary person! I couldn't tell the change between the ordinary person or the Brother that preached and had visions.

Q: What was his favorite food?

A: He just liked ordinary every day country food. Beans, potatoes, just like everybody else, but he usually would have, if there were biscuits, he would take a biscuit, put peanut butter on it and sugar. That was like his desert! I do that all the time!

Q: Could you tell when Brother Branham was having a vision?

A: No I couldn't tell when he was having a vision.

Q: How did Brother Branham go about telling you that you were going to have a baby? Did you ask him to pray for you to have a baby or did he just tell you? Where were you when he told you?

A: This one's a little long! I believe we were in Yakima Washington, we traveled several places so I'm really not sure but I believe it was Yakima. But the sign on his hand happened to appear in that service with a sister, you know, and I never understood how it worked! So me and Billy got in the car and then he got in. I questioned him how did the hand work? And he said, "it would be like if I took your hand, and if there was anything wrong with you..." he stopped talking because his palm swelled up, got red and got white dots on it! He moved his hand away and there was nothing there. When he moved his hand back to mine the same thing happened again! He said, "Sis, he called me Sis a lot, you've got female trouble, that's why you can't have a baby." And he prayed for me there in the car, and nine months later your papa was born!

Q: What is your favorite memory with Brother Branham?

A: I've had many memories, some I can't remember anymore and that makes me sad and hurts me, but for him to baptize me was I guess the greatest event in my life.

Q: How old were you when he baptized you? Where were you baptized?

A: I was 18 years old, and I was baptized at the Branham Tabernacle. It was on Brother Branham's birthday, a sunrise service.

MY DOG, "CHAMP"

Dear YF,

I want to share a testimony with you. I have been praying for a dog for 3 to 4 years. About 1 year ago, I was at study hall, my class was writing about "Sic him boy". Sister Cindy, my teacher, said to write about your pet. I had never had a pet before, so I wrote that I was going to get a dog. I have listened to tapes and Brother Branham said to speak the Word. So I was speaking the Word. I also prayed for the Lord's perfect will. My parents constantly said no. We're not getting a dog they said. But my faith didn't waver. Around April, 2020 my parents changed their minds. WE started looking for a dog. Soon we found a lady who owned a kennel. We waited about 7 weeks. Then we brought home my very first pet. He's a really cute puppy, and he's a labrador retriever. His name is Champ. Praise the Lord! God answered prayer! Just like Abraham waited 25 years, the promise was fulfilled. Even though I had to wait a long time, God answered prayer! I thank Him so much!

God bless you,

Sister Genia Barber

Fritz Facts:

- Brother Branham's dog, "Fritz", was half Airedale and half Newfoundland.

"Years ago, I used to have an old hunting dog; his name was Fritz. And he was half Airedale and half Newfoundland; he was a great big dog." 60-0608 - "Having Conferences"

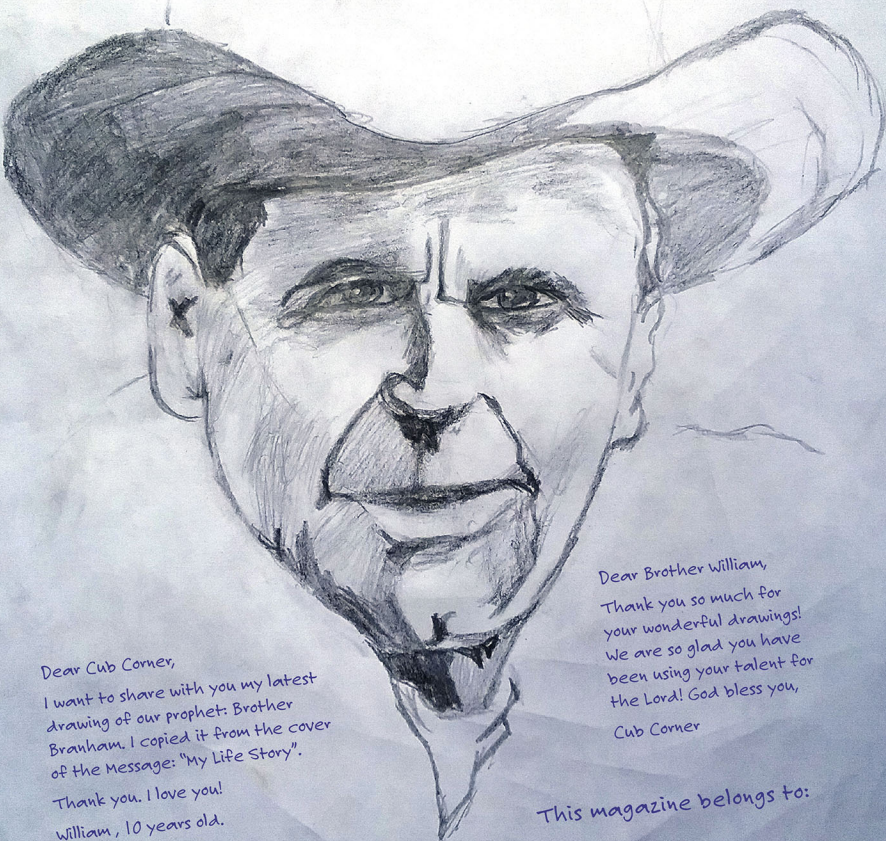

- Do you know how many teeth Fritz had? Brother Branham said:

"And I had an old dog didn't have but one tooth. But brother, he would have a lot of grit about him." 53-0613 - "God's Provided Way"
