Holy Week Project

This Easter weekend read Scriptures and play Brother Branham's quotes to follow Jesus leading up to the Great Resurrection Morning! Provided are print-offs, quotes, and Scriptures for each of the days for you to use. These are only some of the scriptures and quotes that can be used for your study. There are many ways you can decorate each day; use a flip chart, poster board, or regular sheets of paper for a booklet. We would also like to encourage you to be creative with items you may have on hand at home. The sample project shown is only a guideline of how to make this simple, but impactful visual project. It is a great study with a big impact for all ages! Don't forget to send pictures of your Cubs working on their project!

Quotes:

“Now, now, Jesus, Messiah, rode into the city of Jerusalem, triumph, on the back of a white mule, on Palm Sunday, April the 2nd, a.d. 30. Jesus rode into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, a.d. 30. And now, now, from b.c. 445 to a.d. 30, is exactly four hundred and seventy-five years.”

61-0806 - “The Seventieth Week Of Daniel”
Rev. William Marrion Branham

“Beautiful type of it when Jesus said in the wilderness that He was the Rock that was in the wilderness. No wonder the people screamed back there that day, when He came into Jerusalem, riding on this horse, little mule. And they was crying, those Nazarenes crying, “Hosanna, hosanna to Him that cometh in the Name of the Lord.”

Jesus turned over the tables; Jesus curses the fig tree

Scriptures:

- Mark 11:12-19 (Brother Branham reads)

Quote:

“Mark 11:12. And on the morrow, when they...came from Bethany, he was hungry: And seeing a fig tree far off having leaves, he came, if happily he might find any thing thereon: and when he come to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee from henceforth for ever. And his disciples heard it. And they came to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves; And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple. And he taught, saying unto them, It is...written, My Father’s house shall be called the...of all nations the house of prayer? but you have made it a den of thieves. And the scribes and the chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they—for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine. And when evening was come, he went out of the city.”

63-1110E - He That Is In You
Rev. William Marrion Branham

“Besides that, He went into the temple one day. A Man went in there and found the house of God just about contaminated as it is today. They were buying, selling, changing money. And He turned over the money tables; took ropes and plaited them, and beat the moneychangers out of the temple. And looked upon them with anger, and said, “It’s written,” hallelujah, “My Father’s house is a house of prayer; and you’ve made it a den of thieves. And you, with your traditions, has made the commandments of God of none effect.”

Jesus teaching at the temple; Fig tree is withered

Scriptures:

- Mark 11:20-24 (Brother Branham reads)
- Luke 19:47-48

Quote:

“And we want to think of that now as we read His Word. Turn with me to Mark the 11th chapter, and let’s begin reading at the 20th verse of Mark the 11th chapter. And as you’re—waiting for you to turn, I’ll give you the back part of the lesson. Jesus had just went up to the temple. And on His road up He went into the temple, and begin to drive out the people from changing—money changers and doing things that wasn’t right, and told them that it is written, that God’s house was a house of prayer. But they’d made it a den of thieves, robbers, and misused God’s house. And then when He was going He found a fig tree the next morning. That he had leave—the tree had leaves on it, and He thought perhaps there would be some figs. So He went to get some figs. And there was no figs on it, because it wasn’t season yet. And He said to the tree, “No man eateth from thee from henceforth forever.” And here’s where we start now to read at the 20th verse.

And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

And Peter calling to remembrance said unto Him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursed in the way, is wi—thou cursed is withered away.

And Jesus answering said unto them, Have faith in God.

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

Therefore I say unto you, What things soever you desire, when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.”

59-1123 - “Speak To This Mountain”

Scriptures:

- Mark 14:17-26
- Mark 14:32-50
- Luke 22:14-23
- Luke 22:39-53

Quotes:

“And we notice eating is implied in fellowship. What do we have a breakfast? Why, don’t we just meet and talk? But there’s something about eating that brings a fellowship. And now did you notice Jesus in the—the closing of His life’s journey? He wanted a little time of fellowship with the disciples, so He called them apart, and set a table, and broke bread, and—and—and blessed it, and had eating. And the last supper was a fellowship with His disciples, just before He crossed over into the other land to be our High Priest.”

60-0611b - “Fellowship”
Rev. William Marrion Branham

“We was just at the event of this, just before the great battle was to start, and He took the communion. He brought His disciples together, to talk over things with them. And that’s the way He does you and I, just before the great battle of life starts. Before the great battle of right and wrong begins to battle within us, God brings us to a Gethsemane. He brings us to the communion, and He talks it all over with us.”

Topic:

“The Great and Mighty Conqueror”

Scriptures:

- Mark 15:16-39
- Luke 23:26-49
- Mark 15:42-47
- Luke 23:50-56

Quote:

“He went into the regions of the devils, demons; He scattered them. And right to the very pits of dark hell He went, still in existence. Though His body was quiet on the cross, He was still the great and mighty Conqueror. And after nineteen hundred years has passed, He’s still the mighty Conqueror. And He will forever be the mighty Conqueror.

Then when He got to the very doors of hell, if we could use a little drama here, the devil step out and say, “So I finally got You. So You’ve finally arrived. I tried to destroy that seed all along. I destroyed Abel. I thought I had You. When I destroyed the prophets, I thought I had You. I was sure when I got John that I got You. But now, here You are, and You’re in my kingdom, and You’re under my domain, and You’re in my power, for You died as a sinner.”

I can hear Him say, “Satan, I am the virgin born Son of God. My Blood’s still wet on the cross. I have met every just requirement for Adam’s fallen race, and I’ve come down here to conquer and to take over.” Amen. Reached to the devil and grabbed the keys of death and hell, and hung them on His own side, and kicked him into the pits where he belongs. Still the mighty Conqueror.”

58-0110 - “The Mighty Conqueror”
Rev. William Marrion Branham

Quote:

“Now what happened to Him? Where did He go when He left the cross and went in Joseph of Arimathaea’s tomb? He was so poor He had not a place to lay His head. He was born in a manger, with a black name behind Him, as “an illegitimate child.” He was laughed at, made fun of, scoffed at, in the earth. He was made fun of, and rejected. And when He died, He had to die through capital punishment, between two thieves. And did not even have a place to bury Him, and He was buried in another man’s grave. The very God of Heaven coming to earth! Who do we think we are, that have to go through a little bit of suffering? What He did for us! Think of it, friend, study of it.

The Roman soldier said, “Truly, that’s the Son of God.” The sinner had to recognize it. Judas said, “I have betrayed innocent Blood.” He had to recognize it. The whole earth recognized it.

Then where did He go? When a man dies, does that finish it? No, sir. He had to die that way because God’s Bible said that He would die that way. And He trusted God’s Word. That’s the reason He could say, in His life, “Destroy this temple, and I’ll raise it up in three days.”

Resurrection Sunday:

Topic:

Resurrection. He has risen!

Scriptures:

- Luke 24:1-12

Quote:

“What a beautiful morning, the first resurrection morning, the first Easter that had ever dawned on the earth! Do you realize that this Easter that we are celebrating, of His resurrection, is only pointing to a great Easter that’s coming, the hour that He comes from the Heavens? And all that are dead in Christ shall rise and go with Him. We are only looking forward to that, great Easter, coming. And, today, how beautiful it is, what a consolation, what a proof we have, when the Bible declares it, when His omnipresence declares it, when His healing Power declares it, when His great Spirit declares it, when everything in nature declares it, His Church declares it, my heart declares it, every borned-again man’s heart declares it, that, “Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and will come again! And He is the same now, Yesterday, today, and forever!” Now notice.”
