

FIVE O'CLOCK THIS MORNING, my little friend
WITH A RED BREAST FLEW UP AT THE WINDOW
& WOKE ME UP. SEEMED LIKE HIS
Little Heart would burst, saying,

“HE IS RISEN.”

I'VE ALWAYS THOUGHT OF THIS LITTLE BIRD AS BEING A FRIEND TO ME...

-BROTHER BRANHAM

Empty Tomb Worksheet

Project time: 30 minutes

Supplies:

- Watercolor paints
- Paintbrush
- Water cup
- White crayon
- Pencil
- Paper towels
- The Empty Tomb Worksheet

Steps:

1. Trace over the words “He is risen!” with a white crayon.
2. Watercolor the tomb, including over “He is risen.” It will stay white since you wrote over it with the crayon.
3. Color the quote and the rest of the picture with whatever you would like. Watercolor paints, crayons, markers, etc.

You're finished!