Scripture:

Colossians 3:17

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Quotes:

247 Oh, he's a warrior, too, remember. But great is our... "Greater is He that's in you, than he that's in the world." But hold to God's Word; believe It, you captains of the army here. Hold your fort, brother. That's right, hold your post of duty.

248 So, I had a little girl here, one time. The lady may be setting here now. Her name was Nellie Sanders. One of the first times I ever seen a devil cast out. We lived, now, if I can just get the place; and be just about three blocks up here, beyond the graveyard. And I had just become a preacher, and I was preaching right here on this corner, with a tent meeting.

249 And that little girl was one of the best dancers. She went to high school down here, and her and Lee Horn. And many of you here in town know Lee Horn down here, runs the pool room. And so they, her and Lee Horn, was the best dancers there was in the country. He's Catholic, himself. Course, religion didn't mean nothing to them, so then...Nellie and them. So, she was a great dancer, and he was, too. And they had this here dance called the "black bottom," and "jitterbugs," and all them things. And she was the...Them two was the best in the country.

250 One day, she staggered in up here, one night, to the meeting. There she fell down, at the altar, little Nellie. Bless her heart. She laid there at the altar. She raised up her head. And she cried, and the tears running down her cheeks. She said, "Billy..." She knew me. She said, "I want to be saved, so bad."

251 And I said, "Nellie, you can be saved. Jesus already saved you, girl. You have to accept it now upon the basis of His Word."

252 And she stayed there. And she cried, and she prayed, and she told God she would never listen to the things of the world again. All at once, a lovely sweet peace come over her soul. She raised up from there, shouting and praising God, glorifying God.

253 And about six or eight months after that, she was coming down Spring Street, one night.

254 Now, just a young girl, she was just in her teenage, about eighteen years old. And she come to me, and she said, "Hope..." That was my wife, the one that's gone on. She said, "I wish I looked like Hope and Irene." She said, "You know, they never did get out in the world." Said, "The world puts a mark on you." Said, "I got a rough look." Said, "Now, I quit wearing make-up and stuff, but I look so rough. Even my cast, in my face," she said, "I look rough." She said, "They look so innocent and tender." Said, "I wish I'd have never done that."

255 I said, "Nellie, the Blood of Jesus Christ cleanses from all sin, honey. Go on, believe it."

256 Wayne Bledsoe, many of you know him here, a bosom friend of mine, and years and years. He was a drinker. And he come up here with my brother, Edward. And he got drunk down here in the street, and I picked him up, 'cause cops was going to get him. And I brought him up here. And I was a preacher and lived up here, my mama and papa's, way 'fore I was married. And I took him, put him in the bed in there. I sleep...slept on a duofold. There was a big bunch of Branham's, you know, ten of us. And so we had about four rooms, and we had to kind of double up, a little. So, I had an old duofold I slept on. I pulled it out like this, and—and put Wayne to bed with me. Drunk, had to pack him in the house and lay him down.

257 And I was laying there. I said, "Wayne, aren't you ashamed of yourself, like that?"

258 And he said, "Uh, Billy, don't talk to me like that."

And then I put my hand over. I said, "I'm going to pray for you, Wayne. God bless you." And I had been saved about, oh, I guess about, maybe a year.

259 And so then, all at once, a—a cab, slammed the door outside, and somebody knocking real hard. "Brother Bill! Brother Bill!" [Brother Branham knocks on the pulpit—Ed.]

260 Thought, "My, goodness, somebody must be dying." I jumped up, the door; grabbed my old thing there, throwed around my pajamas, like this; and covered Wayne up. Run to the door.

261 It sounded like a woman. I opened the door, and this young girl standing at the door. She said, "Oh, can I come in?"

I said, "Come in." And I turn the lights on.

262 And now she was just crying like that, and she said, "Oh, Brother Billy, I'm—I'm—I'm gone! I'm gone!"

263 I said, "What's the matter, Nellie? You got a—got a heart attack?"

264 She said, "No." She said, "Brother Bill, I was coming down Spring." She said, "Honest, Brother Bill! Honest, Brother Bill, I didn't mean no harm. I didn't mean no harm."

265 I said, "What's the matter?" I thought, "What am I going to do with her now?" I didn't know what to do. I, just a young fellow. And I...

266 Said, "Oh, Brother Bill," said, "I'm just—I'm just—I'm just all to pieces."

I said, "Now, quieten down, sis. Tell me all about it."

267 And she said, "Well," she said, "I was coming down the street, and the Redman's Hall..." And they used to have Saturday night dances there. And she said, "I had some stuff, that I was going home to make me a dress." And she said, "I heard that music." And she said, "You know," said, "I stopped just a minute." And said, "It kept getting better. So I thought, 'You know, it won't hurt if I stand right here.'"

268 That's where she made her mistake, stopped for a moment. She just listened.

269 Said, "Well, I'm going to think." Said, "O Lord, You know I love You, though." Said, "You know I love You, Lord. But I can sure remember the time when Lee and I used to win all the—the cups, and so forth." Said, "My, I remember that old music used to attract me. It don't now."

270 Uh-oh, uh-oh! You just think it don't. It's already got you, right there. That's just as good as he wants, right there. See?

271 How many ever knowed Nellie Sanders? Well, I guess a whole lot of you. Yeah. Sure. So they—they was—they was...

272 Said, she said, "Well, you know what?" Said, "Maybe if I walk up on the steps up there," said, "maybe I'll be able to testify to some of them."

273 Oh! See, you're right on the devil's ground. Stay out of it. "Shun the very appearance of evil."

274 But she walked up, the top of the steps, and stood there a few minutes. And first thing you know, she was in some boy's arms, out on the floor.

275 Then she come to herself. And she was standing there, crying and going on, said, "Oh, I'm lost now, for good. I..."

276 I thought, "Well, I don't know too much about the Bible, but I believe Jesus said this, 'In My Name they shall cast out devils.'" I...

277 And Wayne had done sobered up, a little bit, and was setting there, watching. See? So I said, "Now, devil, I don't know who you are, but I'm telling you now, this is my sister, and you ain't got no business with holding her. She didn't mean to do that. She just stopped for a minute." That's where she made her mistake, though. I said, "But you're going to have to come out of her. You hear me?"

278 And so help me, God, at the Judgment Bar, know. That screen door begin to opening and shutting, by itself. "Plumpity, plumpity" there at the door. "Pump, ka-plump, ka-plump." I thought.

And she said, "Bill, look at there. Look at there."

And I said, "Yeah. What is that?"

She said, "I don't know."

I said, "Neither do I."

279 And the door went "pumpity-pump, ti-pump," shutting like that. I thought, "What's the matter here? What's the matter?"

280 I looked again, like that. And I said, "Leave her, Satan! In Jesus' Name, come out of her!"

281 When I said that, it looked like a great big bat, about this long, rose up from behind her, with long hair hanging down out of its wings and off of its feet, like that. Was going,

"Oooooh." Started right towards me, just as hard as it come.

282 I said, "O Lord God, the Blood of Jesus Christ protect me from that."

283 And Wayne jumped up in the bed, looked. And here it was, like a big shadow, circled around, and went over and went down behind the bed. Out of the bed went Wayne, in the next room, as hard as he could. So we...

284 I got Nellie and took her home. And come back, and I couldn't...

285 Mom went in there and shook the sheets and everything. There wasn't nothing in that bed. What was it? A devil went out of her. What happened? She stopped for a moment. [Brother Branham knocks on the pulpit two times—Ed.] That's all.

286 Don't stop, at all. When God sinks His Word in your heart, just take that Sword and start chopping and cutting. Hallelujah!

287 "I ain't got time to wait for nothing else. Just crossed over, I haven't got time to even settle down."

62-0311 - The Greatest Battle Ever Fought

Rev. William Marrion Branham

JUST-IF-ID Tutorial

Tools Needed

- Measuring tape
- Sandpaper
- Safety glasses
- Pin nail gun
- Table saw
- Miter saw

Materials Needed

- Choice of wood
- Wood glue
- 3/8" pin nails
- Finish
- Red Plexiglass

 Parental assistance recommended.

Steps

1. Cut a piece of wood 6" x 4 1/2" x 1/2" for the back.

2. Cut a strip of wood 4 1/2" x 3/4" x 1/4" for the top.

3. Cut two strips of wood $4\frac{1}{2}'' \times \frac{3}{4}'' \times \frac{1}{2}''$ for the sides.

4. Cut a strip of wood $4\frac{1}{2}'' \times \frac{3}{4}'' \times \frac{3}{8}''$ for the bottom.

5. Cut two strips of wood $6'' \times \frac{3}{4}'' \times \frac{1}{8}''$ for the face, we recommend using different species of wood, for contrast.

6. Using an $\frac{1}{8}''$ dado, cut an $\frac{1}{8}''$ notch, $\frac{1}{8}''$ in, on the $\frac{1}{2}''$ side of both side strips.

7. Keeping the saw at the same setting as in step 6, cut a dado in the bottom piece on the 3/8" side of the piece. The groove should line up with the side pieces.

8. On the side pieces, $\frac{3}{4}$ " dado $\frac{1}{8}$ " deep on both ends. Note We used a $\frac{3}{4}$ " dado on the table saw, and a sled with a stop.

9. Glue and pin nail top, bottom, and sides on to back with the dado side facing in.

10. Glue and pin nail faces on. Note You can also glue and clamp the faces so that the pin nail won't show.

11

11. Glue paper that reads “My Sins” in red.

12. Sand.

12

13. Apply finish. Note Be careful to not get the finish on your paper.

14. Slide red plexiglass with vinyl lettering in top slot and watch “My Sins” disappear.

You're Finished!!!
