At Creations Class

We gathered once again under the name of our Lord Jesus. Each young believer was anxious to see what was planned for them that day. After committing the time unto the Lord and asking Him to be present among us through a word of prayer, it was announced that the boys would be leaving for the woodshop. The young brothers cheered with excitement, and perhaps the sisters were just as excited. It was going to be much quieter.

After a short introduction, we were ready to get into the tape and verse for the day, "The Oddball 64-0531," and also the prophet, Brother Paul, spoke through reading of the Word, II Corinthians 12:11. The sisters really enjoyed expounding on the parable of the nut and bolt. Each were able to participate in an activity were they were to handle nuts and bolts and determine which were a tight fit and which were not. Some may look close but they just didn't fit. Each of us were grateful to be a nut! Without the nuts you got a bunch of junk.

We then moved into the making of the bracelets. Some sisters needed help braiding the nuts into the bracelets, but when each was finished, they were very pleased to model them for photographs. After a quick and lively break, they were ready to begin making the necklaces. Each sister was eager to select the chain they would use and the other color choices that they could select. You could overhear them reading the attached tag, "Threaded to the Word," what a blessing.

The time came for the boys to return; and, with much excitement, we created one last project with nuts and bolts. The children were thrilled to create a gift for dad. Each was able to create a keychain for their father with nuts and bolts, including the tag "threaded with the Word." After a few questions to review what was discussed that day, the students gathered their belongings once again and all the "Oddballs" were ready to go to their homes.

CLASS NAME: BUNCH OF YUNK

Tape Title: 64-0531 The Oddball

Project: Making a bracelet, a necklace and a keychain

Lesson:

- Fool for Christ meaning?
- What's an Oddball?
- Illustration of a Nut– Believer (show the students an actual nut)
- Illustration of a Bolt– Jesus Christ (show the students an actual bolt)
- Threaded - The nut and the bolt have to match (or agree) or you won't be able to screw the nut on the bolt.
  - We're all threaded to something
  - We want to be "Threaded with the Word"
- If you're threaded right, you'll be a nut for Christ
  - "But if I'm not tight with this Word, then I'm 'yunk.' See? I'll just be a nut for Christ. Yes." -Brother Branham
- There are all kinds of nuts. Satan has his nuts and God has His nuts.
  - Name some nuts for Christ.
    - Brother Branham
    - Noah
    - Moses
    - Elijah
    - Paul
    - John the Baptist
- If we're a nut for Christ, what will we do?
  - Obey the Word of God!
  - Read our Bibles every day.
  - Pray and talk to the Lord every day.
  - Listen to the Word.
  - Be sweet!

Scripture:

"I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing."

II Corinthians 12:11

Song:

This is Like Heaven To Me

Keychain Activity Lesson:

- Have a mix of nuts and bolts and let the kids try to put them together. They can see that the threads have to match even when they "look" like they'll fit.
- Demonstrate that the loose nuts on the keychain or necklace are "yunk" because they're not tight with the Word.
- The tight nuts are threaded right! We want to be "Threaded with the Word" and "Wound with the Word"

Quote:

21 And I thought, while reading this, and thinking of this little place up here, this come on my mind, Paul saying, "I have become a fool." See? Now, that's a very strange thing for an apostle to say. "I have become a fool." Now, a fool is a person that really isn't in their right mind. And how would this apostle say such a thing as this, "I become a fool"?

22 And then thinking of--of this group, no doubt, that, in the eyes of the people on the other side, you've become a fool. You have become what we would call, today: The Oddball. No doubt but what people think that of you. And remember, that, on the other side, they're oddballs, too. See?

23 So--so you have to be somebody's fool, so I'd rather be a fool for Christ. See? I'd be a... God said His people were "a peculiar people, odd; a chosen, elected; a royal priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices to God, that is, the fruits of our lips, giving praise to His Name."

24 Some time ago... This little sense of humor, I hope it doesn't break the fine spirit that's in here. Just come on my mind. It was a Brother Troy of the Full Gospel Business Men, was telling about this. I was thinking of this, for this young singer here, that's just come to the Lord. When he--he was working in a...

25 He's a meat cutter, and he was working in a butcher shop. And--and this was a German there, and he just kept talking to him about the Lord. And this German couldn't talk English very well. So he--he said, "Well, come on to the meeting." Said, "You need the baptism of the Holy Ghost."

26 So the old Dutchman want him to know that he was a Lutheran, you see, he was--he was all right. He was a...?..."Well, you come on up and visit us once."

27 And so they come across a--a bunch of, perhaps, oddballs, too, as we call it. You see? And that night this German man received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. And the next day he was cutting meat, and speaking in tongues and singing. He was having him a regular jubilee.

28 And so, after while, the boss of the factory come by, and he said, "Henry," said, "what's the matter with you?" He said, "O glory to God." He said, "I--I got saved."

29 And he said, "Why," he said, "where you been?" Said, "You must have been down there with that bunch of nuts," he said.

30 He said, "Yes, glory to God!" He said, "I--I was down there with the bunch of nuts." He said, "You know, if you didn't have the--the--the nuts..." Said, "You take like the automobile, it comes down the road. And you take all the nuts out of it, you, what you got but a bunch of junk!" That's just about right, and you take the--the--the nuts out of anything. Now, it takes that to hold the thing together.

LENGTH OF THE BRAIDING IS ON EITHER SIDE OF THE HEX NUTS

1. measure 48" silky cording and fold in thirds

2. tie a knot in one end, leaving a 3/4" loop

the closure nut should be able to fit through this loop

3. tape the knotted end to the table

4. cut the other ends evenly, fray check the ends

5. thread on 2-3 nuts per strand

tie loose knots on the ends to temporarily secure the nuts

6. braid the three strands until you get to the figured measurement length

7.

8. thread a nut up the far left strand. then push the nut against the base of the braid. cross over the middle and continue with far right

9. continue switching from right to left until you run out of nuts and then braid figured measurement again

10. tie a knot to secure the braiding

11.

untie the ends and thread all three strands through the closure nut 12.

thread each strand back through, wrapping around the closure nut

13.

trim your ends to 1/2"-1" the closure nut can also loosen and tighten the bracelet the bracelet secures by threading the closure nut through the loop

1.

cut a 1 3/4" by 2" piece of cardstock

2.

cut a 16 foot string of embroidery floss and wrap it around the cardstock piece 3.

thread a 6" string of floss through the thickness and double knot to secure 4.

slide the bunch off the cardstock and straighten out

5.

cut an 8" string of floss. bunch the top of the tassel and a loop made with one end of the 8" string

6.

While holding the loop, wrap the remaining string around the top of the tassel

6.

thread the end of the string through the loop

7.

pull until the knot disappears then trim the excess

8.

trim the excess from the double knotted string

9.

cut the loops on the end of the tassel

10.

trim to desired length

11.

thread a jump ring in the same spot of the double knotted string 12.

fray check your ends and you have a tassel

13.

paint the top of the "Threaded with the Word" plate

14.

wipe off the excess paint

15.

paint some of the nuts

16.

thread the nuts on to the eye bolt tip: glue the acorn nut to the eye bolt for security!

17.

thread the eye bolt, tassel, and the "Threaded with the Word"
