Scripture:

Genesis 22:10

10: And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

Quotes:

25 Going back, now, to our text, of “Jehovah-Jireh; The Lord will provide for Himself a sacrifice.”

Abraham, I just love to speak of Abraham, because it was Abraham to whom the covenant was made. The promise was made to Abraham, and not only to Abraham, but to his Seed after him. Not his seeds, because he had many sons, but only to one seed, which came through Isaac. Through Isaac came Christ. We being dead in Christ, take on Abraham’s seed, and are heirs according to the promise.

And I believe, sensibly, that I can prove by the Bible, that the seed of Abraham are those who have been borned again of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ‘cause Christ lives in the believer. That’s right. You have Abraham’s Seed when you have the Holy Ghost. That’s right. It was through that promise.

And now, that promise wasn’t made or give to you by your own goodness; it was God’s election and calling that brought you to it, nothing you ever done to merit it. You never sought after God; God sought after you and give it to you on the basis of sovereign grace, nothing in the world that you could do, nothing you could do about it.

26 What if a pig wanted to be a lamb? It wouldn’t do him any good. He’s just a pig; his nature’s a pig. Well, that’s just the same thing it is, by you want... “Well, I believe I will become a Christian.” You couldn’t do it if you had to. God has to do it. You might clean up your life. You might do one thing, pay good tithings into the churches. You might even build a synagogue. You might do all these things, but you can’t cleanse yourself from sin. It’s like a leopard trying to lick his spots off of him, and he only makes them brighter. So... The only way a leopard can be changed, is for somebody to pick him up and dye his hide, and then he’s changed.

And the only way that God can do anything with you, or you can be changed from a sinner to a Christian, is to be plunged beneath the fountain filled with Blood, drawn from Emmanuel’s veins, where sinners plunged beneath the flood, and come out something besides a sinner (Amen.), lose all their guilty stains. That’s it.
