Indiana Squirrel Season Starts

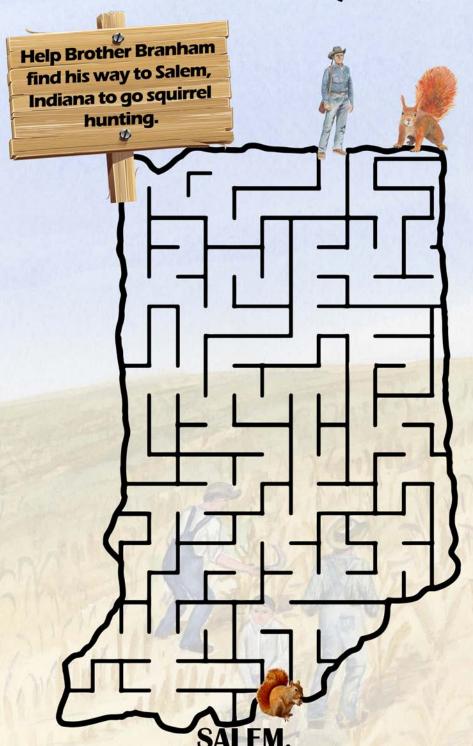

I want you to know that
He's God of the woods
just the same as He's
God of the city.
59-1115

"'Oh,' I said, 'there's no need of hunting. Here is people out here, the farmers picking their corn, right around this little woods. The SQUIRRELS would not be here.'

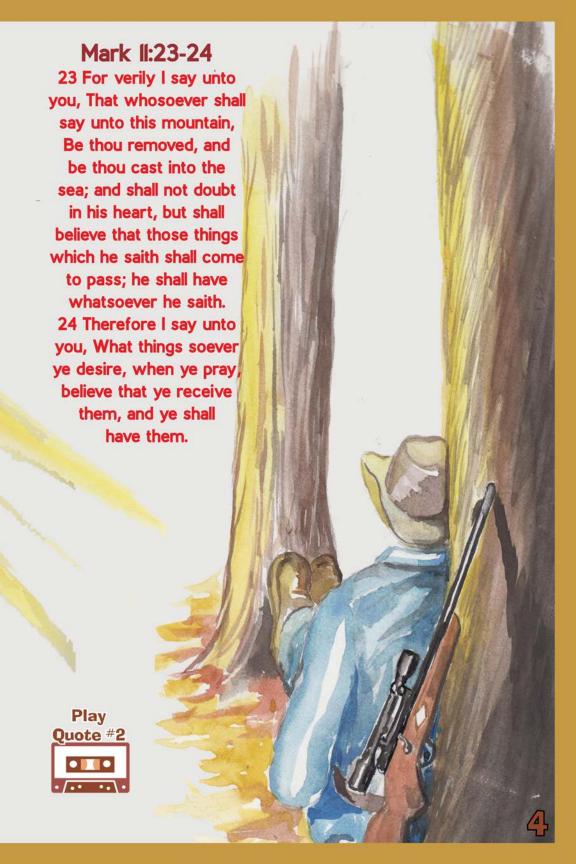

59-1115

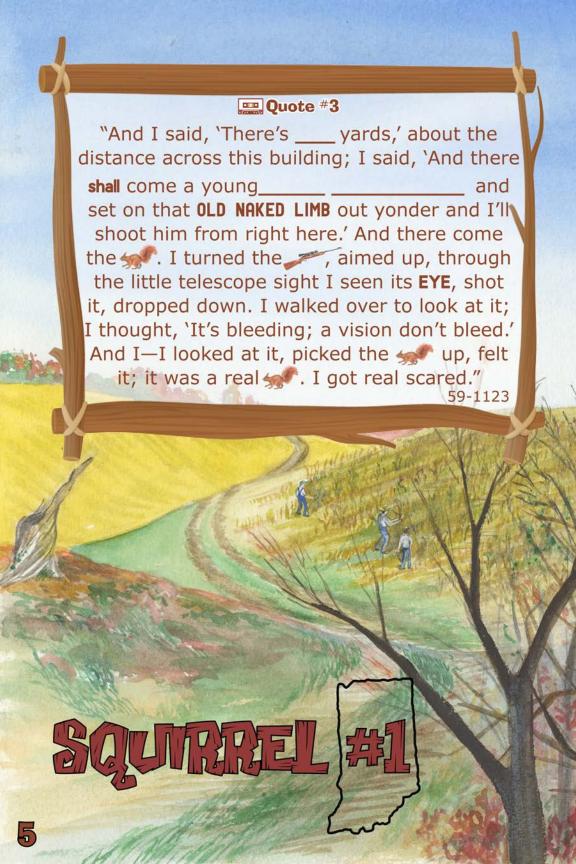

October 10, 1959

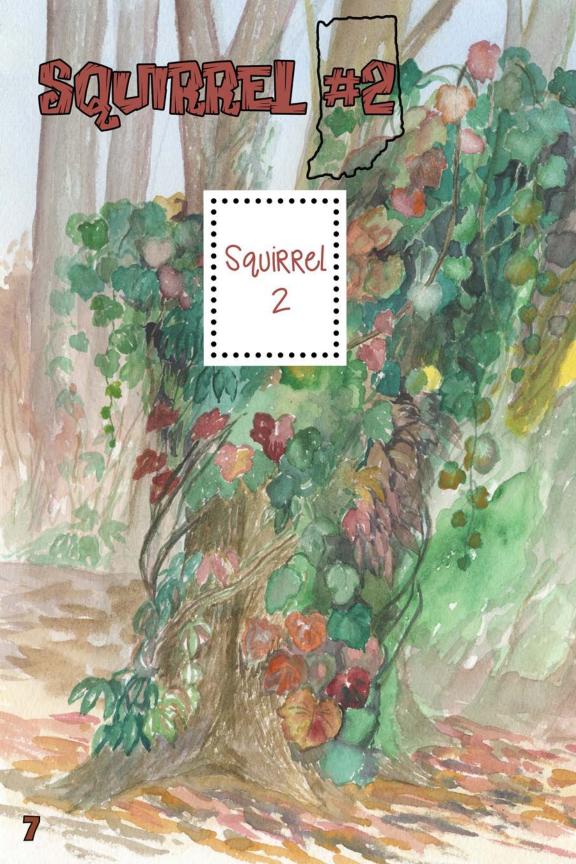

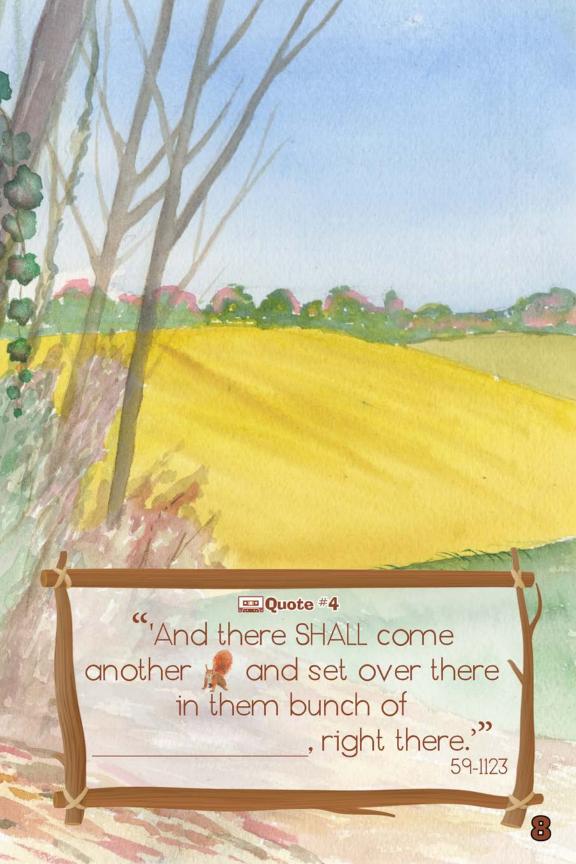

"So I sit down between the two trees, and propped my feet up on one and leaned back against the other, in the warm sunshine. I thought, 'I'll just take a little nap, then I'll get Brother Banks, and Brother Sothmann, and the boys, as I go back, and down the road.' And as I sit there... [Brother Branham coughs two times—Ed.] Pardon me. As I sit there, under the tree, just got snugged down, and the warm sun shining on me. Something said, "If you say to this mountain, 'Be thou plucked up and cast into the sea,' and shall not doubt in your heart, but believe that those things that you've said will come to pass, you can have what you've said." I said, 'Well, now, there is that Scripture in my mind again."

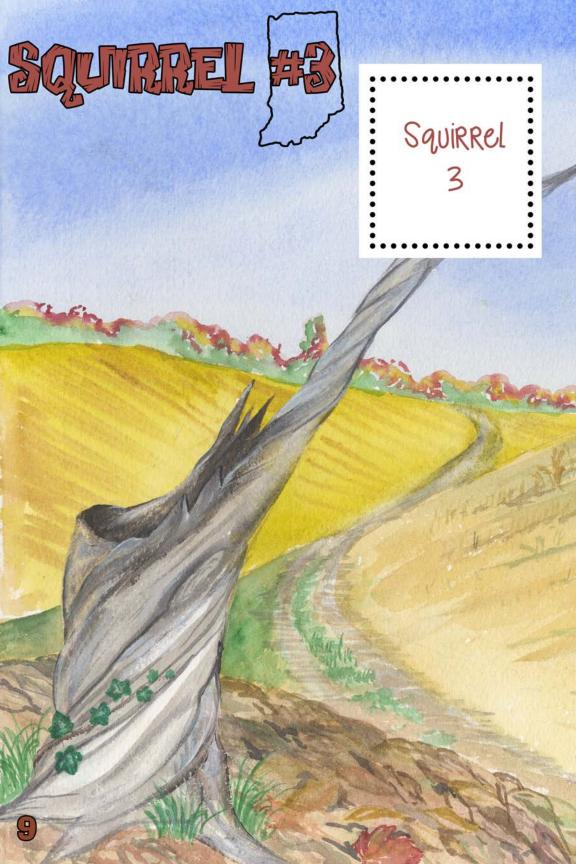

"And it SHALL come to pass there will be a young _____ go out on that limb, set on the end of the limb and look over at the farmers cutting their ,' shucking their ,' and I'll kill him from this tree right here. IT SHALL BE THAT WAY." 59-1123

MOUNTAINS OF KENTUCKY

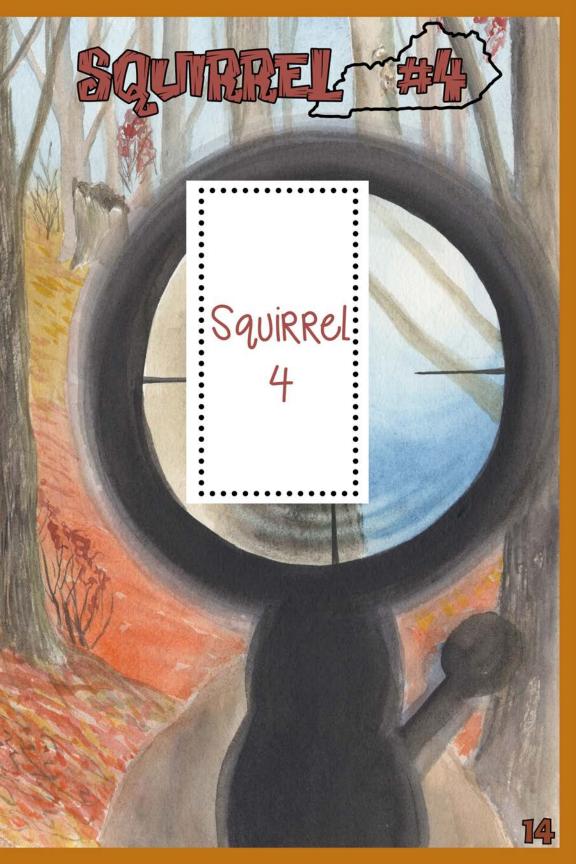

"And said, 'Ask what you will, and it'll be given to you."

"...and I seen a "run up a tree about sixty or seventy yards from me. So dark it had to be just the light across the top of the mountain or I wouldn't have seen him. And I—I leveled the down. I couldn't see the kept looking back and forth. I thought, 'Where's he at?' After while looked like a knot on the tree stuck around, I thought, 'That's his head.' So I shot. The run down the tree and I heard something hit the leaves;"

Quote #11 continued

"And about that time, about fifteen yards from it, ANOTHER run up a tree. I said, 'That was that , I missed him, he run around, run up that tree.' So I watched real close. It was so dark and the wind blowing so hard. I thought I seen some leaves with something moving; I thought, 'Well, I'm—I'm going to shoot at it anyhow.' And I shot, I heard that squirrel hit the ground, PLUNK. It really killed him right out."

Squirrel 7

"So I walked on up the hill, and when I got to this first tree, there laid my , THE FIRST ONE, right in line, exactly way I pointed. God in heaven knows that's true. Right the way I pointed... Well, I went over, I said, 'Well, that makes me four, He give me one for good measure. That's good.' I said, 'I said three and I got four; that's good."

59-1123

Quote #12

"I goes over to find the other there. And I looked, and I looked, and I searched under leaves and raised up little pieces of chunk, and tore open an old log. And there wasn't but one log laying within thirty yards, and I tore it all to pieces. Looked under the sides, and held my hands in the leaves, and felt. There was no squirrel there, nowhere."

___Quote #13

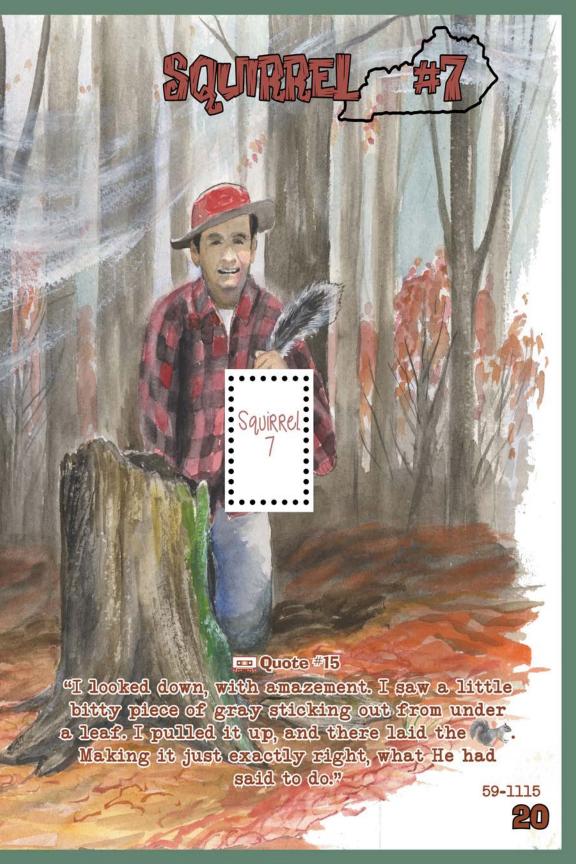

"I felt in there, and I thought I felt my , raising up and down. When I was...I said, 'Well, I can't get to him. So, in the morning, I'll bring the boys back and get it."

The next day...

...... Quote #14

"And I went on. Something just drove me on. And I went walking up through the woods, hunting. I kept thinking, 'What if that isn't in there?' He gave me his hunting knife, so I could cut the hole bigger, to reach in and get it. And Something said to me, 'If it isn't there, or if it is in there, what makes the difference?' I said, "He will...He wouldn't helieve me. He prayed and said, that, 'If we find the , you'll know that our brother has told us the truth.'" And that great Anointing come, said, 'Just say the up there, and you'll get him.' I thought, 'Surely, Lord, surely this will be seven times, straight, while this Anointing is on me.' I said, 'Is that You?' He said, 'Say what you will.' I said, 'I shall find that squirrel.'"

Brother Shelby

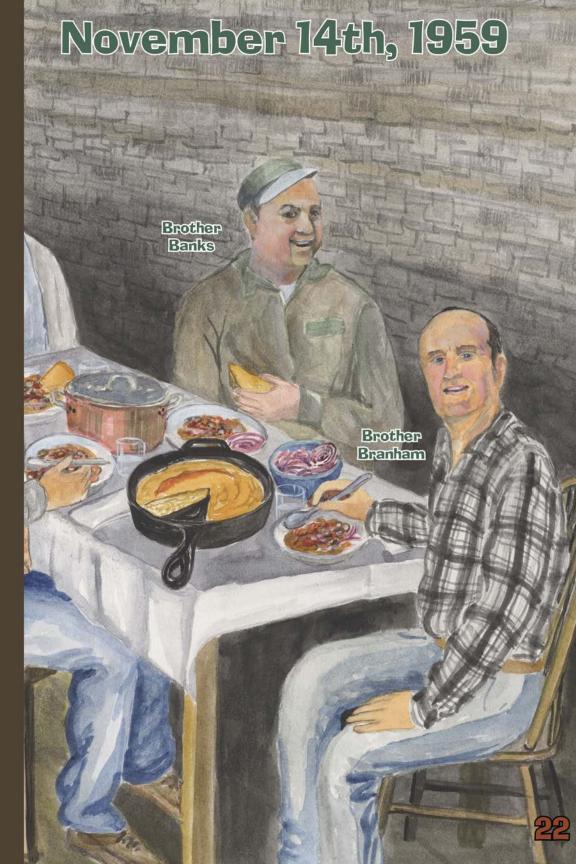

One week later in Depauw, Indiana...

Quote #16

"And they were poor people, but I was WELCOME.

Had old—big old bowl of beans, pinto beans baked with corn bread, and sliced onions. And can I eat that. So I was raised on it. And I was just eating away and having a good time. And mother Wright had baked me a big cherry cobbler, you know, and out of the littletree that I used to help her pick it out of there."

Quote #17

'He can still produce an animal, to His glory. These squirrels was not a vision. I shot them. Blood came out them. I dressed them and eat them.

They wasn't visions. They were squirrels.'

Quote #18

"And little old quiet Sister Hattie, setting back there, little dust bonnet on like the country women wear there. And she'd put on a little clean dress to come over to help her mother cook me a dinner. And she was setting with her hand like this, and she said,

That's nothing but the Truth!

She said the right thing. Here's my Bible, and as a servant of God, I say this. I could hardly hear the last she said. Her mother was trying to say something, but I didn't get it. I... Just as she said that, she said the right thing. The Spirit of the Lord said to me, 'Tell her to ask what she will, and you give it to her.' I—I couldn't speak. That room, everybody, felt strange. I said, 'Sister Hattie.' She said, 'Yes, Brother Branham.' I said, 'THUS SAITH THE LORD, speak anything that you desire; I don't care what it is. If you want to know that God's give this ministry, speak anything that you 🖍 desire. THUS SAITH THE LORD, if you'll speak it, I'll speak it behind you and you'll have it right here." 59-1123

"That's nothing but the Truth"

"She said, 'The salvation of my two boys.' I said, 'You have it, in the Name of the Lord.'
And those two little modern teen-age snicklefritz boys, that had hated the very cause of Christ grabbed one to scream the blessings of God. The power of God struck that place.

Banks fell into his plate. I don't know what happened for about ten minutes."
